Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That section one thousand two hundred and five A of an act, approved the eighteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws, three hundred nine), entitled “An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, together with the provisions by which it shall be administered, and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof; providing revenue to establish and maintain the same, and the method of collecting such revenue; and repealing all laws, general, special, or local, or any parts thereof, that are or may be inconsistent therewith,” as amended by an act, approved the twenty-third day of May, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws, two hundred sixty-one), entitled “An act to amend an act, approved the eighteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred eleven (Pamphlet Laws, three hundred and nine), entitled ‘An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, together with the provisions by which it shall be administered, and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof; providing revenue to establish and maintain the same, and the method of collecting such revenue; and repealing all laws, general, special, or local, or any parts thereof, that are or may be inconsistent therewith," which reads as follows:—

"Section 1205-A. The salary of any teacher in any of the school districts of the Commonwealth may be increased at any time during the year for which such teacher is employed, whenever the board of school directors of the district deems it necessary or advisable to do so. Whenever such increase is determined upon by the action of the school board, by mutual consent of the parties, the contract existing between them may be canceled. Thereupon a new contract shall be entered into between the parties. The new contract shall contain no changes from the original contract, except in the matter of salary, unless expressly agreed upon between the contracting parties.

"Any increase of salary heretofore granted and paid by any school board during the school year shall be as valid and binding upon the school district as if made after the passage of this act, notwithstanding that the original contract was not canceled or a new contract entered into," is hereby further amended to read as follows:—

Section 1205-A.
