

No. 101.

AN ACT

To enable city, county, poor, ward, school, borough, and township tax collectors, their executors and administrators if they are deceased, or either surety or sureties if the surety or sureties have paid the taxes, to collect taxes for the payment of which they have become personally liable, without having collected the same, by the expiration of the authority of their respective bonds, or by the expiration of the authority of their respective warrants, or by the expiration of their terms of office; and to extend the time for the collection of the same for a period of two years from the passage of this act.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That in all cases in which the period of two years—the limitation of the warrants of the duplicates of the county, State, dog, poor, road, city, township, ward, school, and borough tax collectors—have expired; and in case where the power and authority of said tax collectors have expired or shall expire during the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five by virtue of the expiration of their terms of office; and said tax collector or collectors have or shall become personally liable for the taxes contained in said duplicates and warrants or any part thereof by reason of the personal payment or otherwise by the said tax collector or collectors of the said taxes or any part thereof, without having recovered or collected the same from the person or persons against whom they have been levied and assessed, or without having recovered or collected the same from the person or persons owning the property against which the said taxes have been levied and assessed, the said duplicates and warrants, and the power and authority of the said tax collectors in all such cases are hereby revived and extended for another period of two years after the passage of this act, and the said tax collector or collectors, their executors or administrators if they are deceased or either surety or sureties if the said surety or sureties have paid the said taxes, are hereby empowered to proceed and collect said taxes from all such persons who have not paid them residing in said district within which said taxes are assessed, as well as from all persons who may remove or have removed from said city, ward, township, or townships, or boroughs, and have neglected to pay the taxes as aforesaid assessed, with the like effect as if said warrant or warrants have not expired by the limitation of the two years as aforesaid, or the term of office of said tax collector had not expired: Provided, That the provisions of this act shall not apply to warrants issued prior to the year one thousand eight hundred ninety-four, and that

To amend section thirteen of an act, approved the nineteenth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and nine (Pamphlet Laws, forty-six), entitled "An act to regulate the practice of osteopathy in the State of Pennsylvania; to provide for the establishment of a State Board of Osteopathic Examiners; to define the powers and duties of said Board of Osteopathic Examiners; to provide for the examining and licensing of osteopaths in this State; and to provide penalties for the violation of this act," by requiring osteopathic physicians to register annually, and imposing a fee therefor.

Board of Osteopathic Examiners.

Section 13, act of March 19, 1909 (P. L. 46), amended.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That section thirteen of an act, approved the nineteenth day of March one thousand nine hundred and nine (Pamphlet Laws, forty-six), entitled "An act to regulate the practice of osteopathy in the State of Pennsylvania; to provide for the establishment of a State Board of Osteopathic Examiners; to define the powers and duties of said Board of Osteopathic Examiners; to provide for the examining and licensing of osteopaths in this State; and to provide penalties for the violation of this act," is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 13. From and after the approval of this act, no person shall enter upon or continue the practice of osteopathy in the State of Pennsylvania unless he or she has complied with the provisions of this act, and shall have exhibited to the prothonotary of the court of common pleas of the county in which he or she desires to practice osteopathy a license duly granted to him or her, as hereinbefore provided; whereupon he or she shall be entitled, upon the payment of one dollar, to be duly registered in the office of the prothonotary of the court of common pleas of

Not to practice until license has been exhibited to the prothonotary
