

No. 213.

AN ACT

Authorizing county commissioners in cases of emergency to construct or reconstruct county bridges upon the approval of the court of quarter sessions.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That when a county bridge wholly within any county or on the boundary line between any two counties has been or shall hereafter be destroyed or partially destroyed, or rendered impassable, or becomes insufficient or inadequate to accommodate public travel, or in any other case of emergency it becomes necessary to construct or reconstruct any such bridge without the delay occasioned by the report of a grand jury or grand juries, the county commissioners of any such county or of any two counties in case of a joint county bridge may upon the approval of the court or courts of quarter sessions of such county or counties erect and construct a new bridge or reconstruct any partially destroyed, insufficient, or inadequate bridge to take the place of such wholly or partially destroyed, or insufficient or inadequate bridge.

County bridges.

County commissioners empowered to construct in emergency.

APPROVED—The 29th day of April, A. D. 1925.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

No. 214.

AN ACT

To amend the first paragraph of the seventh section, and the nineteenth section of an act, entitled "An act regulating certain political parties; providing for the regulating and nomination of candidates of such political parties for certain public offices, the election of delegates and alternate delegates to National party conventions, and of certain party officers, including State committeemen; a method whereby electors of such political parties may express their choice of candidates for the office of President of the United States; and the payment by the several counties, and their reimbursement by the State, of the expenses of the same; authorizing the State committee of a political party to make, and to alter, amend, and revoke, rules; and providing penalties for the violation of the provisions of this act, and for the punishment of certain offenses provided for herein; and repealing inconsistent legislation." approved the twelfth day of July, Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (Pamphlet Laws, seven hundred and nineteen), as amended, so far as to change the time for filing petitions of nomination and for withdrawal of candidates.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That section seven of the act, entitled "An act regulating certain polit-

Misc. Mon.