No. 196

A SUPPLEMENT

To the act, approved the third day of April, one thousand nine hundred and three (Pamphlet Laws, one hundred thirty-seven), entitled "An act regulating the confinement of children, under the age of sixteen years, awaiting trial"; providing for the management of houses of detention for juveniles in counties of the second class; imposing expense in connection therewith on the county; and permitting and authorizing the county commissioners thereof to appropriate money or issue bonds for the purchase of lands or erecting, constructing and equipping of buildings for such purpose.

Counties of second class.

Management of houses for detention of juveniles.

Board of managers.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That in counties of the second class, the management of houses for the detention and reception of juveniles, under the age of sixteen years, awaiting trial, hearing or judicial investigation, heretofore or hereafter established under the act to which this is a supplement, or its amendment, or under the provision of any other law of the Commonwealth, shall be in a board of managers, consisting of six citizens of the county, at least two of whom shall be women, appointed by the judges of the court of common pleas of such counties. The members of the board or boards of managers existing in counties of the second class on the date this act goes into effect shall remain as members of the board or boards of managers created herein until the expiration of the terms to which they were, respectively, appointed. Within sixty days after this act takes effect, the court shall appoint a sufficient number of members to complete the board of six, provided for by this act, whose terms shall expire on the date of the expiration of the terms of the present members of the board or boards of managers. When the terms of all the members holding over and those so appointed expire, two members shall be appointed to serve for one year, two for two years, and two for three years; and annually thereafter, two members shall be appointed for terms of three years each to take the place of those whose terms expire. Vacancies occurring in the membership of the board shall be filled by the judges of the court of common pleas for the unexpired term. The members of the board shall serve without compensation. The county commissioners and the controller of counties of the second class shall be members ex officio of the board of managers, with the same rights, powers and privileges given to and possessed by the six members of the board appointed by the court.

Appointment of members by court.

Vacancies.

Commissioners and controller to be ex officio members.

Section 2. The board of managers may appoint a superintendent and such additional staff members as may be necessary, whose salaries shall be paid by the county. The number and compensation of such employes shall be fixed by the salary board of the county.

Appointment and compensation of employes.

Section 3. The board of managers shall, annually, report to the county commissioners, on or before the first day of November, the amount of money required for the maintenance of such house or houses of detention. The county commissioners shall make an annual appropriation to the board of managers for the payment of the expenses of administering such house or houses of detention. Expenses incurred in the performance of duties by the board of managers shall be itemized and presented with vouchers to the county commissioners for payment, and a semi-annual report thereof shall be made to the county commissioners. All expenses in connection with the management and administration of any such house of detention shall be paid by the county in the manner provided by law for the payment of county obligations.

Annual report.

Expenses incurred by board.

Expenses for management.

Section 4. The county commissioners shall have power and authority, for the purpose of housing such children, to appropriate money from the public funds or to issue bonds, in the manner provided by law, for the purchase of lands or erecting, constructing and equipping a building or buildings thereon.

Power to appropriate money or issue bonds.

Section 5. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith, or with the act to which this is a supplement, or its amendment, are hereby repealed.

Repeal.

Section 6. The provisions of this supplement shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment.

When effective.

APPROVED—The 23d day of May, A. D. 1933.
