

CHAPTER X.

An ACT to alter the Limits of the Borough of Beaver.

WHEREAS, fundry inhabitants, situate within the present bounds of the borough of Beaver, have represented to the legislature, that for the property they possess on the easterly side of Big Beaver creek, within the limits of the said borough, they are subjected to taxes, and fundry expences, for the improvement and advantage of the town, which is situate on the westerly side of said creek; and that they receive no equivalent benefits from the corporation: For remedy whereof,

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this act, all lands situate on the easterly side of Big Beaver creek, which have been included within the limits of the borough of Beaver, shall be exempt from all assessments and charges on account of said incorporation, and shall be considered as separate from said borough, and lying without the limits of the same; any former law or laws to the contrary notwithstanding.

The limits of the Borough of Beaver, contracted.
