AN ACT

Authorising Aaron Gregg, under the direction of the court of common pleas of the county of Greene, to execute a deed to Thomas Fletcher, for a lot of land, in said county.

WHEREAS, it is represented that Richard Gregg, late of <sup>Preamble.</sup> the county of Greene, in this commonwealth, now deceased, in his lifetime sold a certain lot of land, of forty perches, in Carmichaeltown, in the said county, to Stephen Brock, for a price which was paid and satisfied, but for which lot of land no deed of conveyance was executed by the said Richard Gregg; that all the right of the said Stephen Brock has been transferred, and is now held by Thomas Fletcher, of the same county; that the said Richard Gregg having made a will and appointed executors to the same, they did, after his decease, prove the same and took upon themselves the execution thereof; that since which time two of them are also deceased, and the only survivor, if he be living, has removed out of the state, so that there is no person to execute a deed, according to the terms of the contract, and asking that Aaron Gregg, one of the sons and legatees of the said Richard Gregg, may be authorised to convey the said lot of land: Therefore,
