SECT. 8. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said directors, or any two of them, who shall be a quorum in all cases to do business, shall have full power to make and ordain all such ordinances, rules and regulations, as they shall think proper, convenient and necessary for the direction, government and support of the poor and house of employment aforesaid, and of the revenues thereunto belonging, and of all such persons as shall come under their cognizance: Provided, The same be not repugnant to this law, or any of the other laws of this state or of the United States: And provided also, That the same shall not have any force or effect until they shall have been submitted to the court of common pleas for the time being, of the county of Lebanon, and shall have received the approbation of the same.

Further duties of directors, relative to government of house, &c.

Proviso.

2d proviso. Rules to be submitted to court.

SECT. 9. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That a quorum of said directors shall and they are hereby enjoined and required to meet at the said house of employment, at least once in every month, and visit the apartments, and see that the poor are comfortably supported, and hear all complaints, and redress or cause to be redressed all grievances that may happen by the neglect or misconduct of any person or persons in their employment or otherwise.

Monthly meetings of inspection, &c.

Compensation.

SECT. 10. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said directors shall each of them receive for their services the sum of thirty dollars, to defray the expenses of their necessary attendance on the duties of their office.

Vacancy in board of directors.

SECT. 11. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in case of any vacancy by death, resignation or otherwise, of any of the said directors, the commissioners of the county aforesaid shall fill such vacancy by the appointment of a citizen of their county, under the same penalty as is provided by the third section of this act, to serve until the next general election, when another director shall be elected, to serve as if no such vacancy had happened.

Relative to settlement of overseers, & disposal of uncollected poor tax.

SECT. 12. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all claims and demands in relation to the poor in the aforesaid county, existing at the time of this act being carried into effect, shall have full force and effect, as if this act had not been passed; and when the same shall have been duly adjusted and settled, all moneys remaining in the hands of the overseers, as well as the uncollected taxes, levied for the support of the poor in the several townships in the county of Lebanon, shall be paid over to the supervisors of the highways of their respective townships, to be by them applied towards repairing the roads therein.

Office of overseer abolished.

SECT. 13. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That as soon as the poor of the county of Lebanon shall be removed to the house of employment of the said county and the outstanding taxes collected and paid over, the office of overseer of the poor within the said county shall from thenceforth be abolished.

Transfer of certain duties, &c. to supervisors of highways.

SECT. 14. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the powers conferred and the duties imposed on the overseers of the poor, in and by an act to empower the overseers and guardians of the poor of the several townships within this commonwealth, to recover certain fines, penalties and forfeitures, and for other purposes, are hereby conferred and imposed on the supervisors of the highways in the said county of Lebanon, and that the justices of the peace and sheriff within the said county, are hereby required and enjoined to pay to the said supervisors, to be by them applied to the repair of the highways, the aforesaid fines, forfeitures and penalties, within the time and in the manner prescribed by the said act for the payment thereof, in other counties, to the overseers of the poor, and to give notice of the receipt thereof to the said supervisors, within the time and in the manner aforesaid; and that for any neglect or refusal to perform any of the duties enjoined on them by the said act, the said justices of the peace and sheriff in the said county, shall be subject to all fines, penalties and forfeitures to which the justices and sheriffs in other counties by the said act are subject or liable.

SECT. 15. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the commissioners of said county are hereby authorised and empowered to pay to the persons who are appointed, by this act, to fix the place where the building for the accommodation of the poor in the said county shall be erected, such sums of money as will be sufficient to re-imburse them for their expenses, and also to pay to each of the said directors, such sum of money, as, together with the annual sum allowed them by this act, in the opinion of the commissioners, shall be a reasonable compensation for their services during the term they are employed in erecting the building aforesaid.

County commissioners to defray expenses of viewers and compensate directors.

SECT. 16. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That so much of the laws of this commonwealth, relating to the poor, as are by this act altered or supplied, be and the same is hereby repealed, so far as they affect the county of Lebanon.
