No. 146.

AN ACT

Relating to the service of process by sheriff, and to the appointment of tipstaves in the city and county of Philadelphia.

SECT. 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania in general assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That in cases where trespass or nuisance has been or may be committed on real estate, by non-residents of the county wherein such real estate is situate, it shall be lawful for the sheriff of said county to go beyond his bailiwick into an adjoining county, for the purpose of serving any process, which may have issued out of the court of the proper county, in suits instituted for the recovery of damages or abatement of nuisance, and such service shall be as good and valid as if the same had been made by the sheriff within his bailiwick.

Sheriffs may go beyond bailiwick in certain cases.

SECT. 2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the judges of the several courts in the city and county of Philadelphia shall have authority to appoint as many tipstaves for their respective courts as may be necessary, and to fix their compensation, which shall be paid by the county commissioners.

Judges of Philad'a courts to appoint and fix compensation of tipstaves.

FRED'K SMITH, Speaker
of the House of Representatives.

WM. G. HAWKINS,
Speaker of the Senate.
