

missioners on their part, and vesting like power and authority in the subscribers to the said capital stock of erecting a bridge at the place aforesaid, and of extending the same from shore to shore, with as full and ample powers, privileges, franchises and emoluments, as to the said company are hereby given.

SECT. 16. And be it enacted, That the said company shall not employ any of their funds in any banking or insurance operations.

SAM'L. ANDERSON,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

JESSE R. BURDEN,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The eleventh day of February, A. D. one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three.

GEO. WOLF.

No. 20.

AN ACT

To enable the Governor to incorporate the Harrisburg water company.

SECT 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That John Forster, Jacob M. Haldeman, Robert Harris, John M. Forster, William Graydon, Frederick Keller, James Lesley, Abraham Bombaugh, Francis R. Shunk, Henry Buehler, Luther Reiley, Hugh Hamilton, George Geiger, Joseph B. Henzey and Isaac Updegraff, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners to do and perform the several duties hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, they, or any three of them, shall procure a book or books, and therein enter as follows: We whose names are hereunto subscribed, do promise to pay to the president and managers of the Harrisburg water company the sum of twenty dollars for each and every share of stock set opposite to our respective names, in such manner and proportions and at such times as shall be determined by the said president and managers, in pursuance of an act of the General Assembly entitled An act

Commissioners appointed to open books, &c.

Shares $20 each.
Form of heading to subscription.

to enable the Governor to incorporate the Harrisburg water company, witness our hands the _____ day of _____ in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and _____, and shall thereupon give notice in the public newspapers printed in Harrisburg, and and such other newspapers as they may think proper, of the time and place or places when and where the said book or books shall be opened to receive subscriptions for the stock of said company, at which time and places one or more of the said commissioners shall attend, and permit and suffer all persons or bodies corporate who shall offer to subscribe in the said book or books, which shall be kept open for the purpose at least six hours in every juridical day, for three days, if three days shall be necessary, and on the first of said days any person of the age of twenty one years shall be at liberty to subscribe in his own name or in the name of any other person or body corporate by whom he shall be authorized, for any number of shares not exceeding twenty, and on any succeeding day while the said books shall remain open, for any number of shares of the said stock, and if at the expiration of the said three days the said book or books shall not have two thousand shares therein subscribed, the said commissioners may adjourn from time to time, and from place to place, until the said number of shares shall be subscribed, and when the said number of shares shall be subscribed the said books shall be closed: Provided always, That every person offering to subscribe in the said book or books in his own name or in the name of any other person or body corporate, shall at the time of subscribing be required to pay to the attending commissioner or commissioners, fifty cents on each share, to defray the expenses attending the taking of such subscriptions, and other incidental charges, which expenses and charges the said commissioners shall pay out of the moneys so received by them, and the balance, if any, shall be paid over to the treasurer of the said company, as soon as the same shall be organized, as hereinafter mentioned.

Duties of commissioners relative to receiving subscriptions.

Whole No. of shares 2000.

Proviso: 50 cts. to be paid down upon subscription of each share.

SECT. 2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That when twenty or more persons shall have subscribed not less than one thousand shares, the commissioners aforesaid or any three of them, may, or when the whole number of the shares aforesaid are subscribed, shall certify under their hands and seals the names of the subscribers and the number of shares subscribed by each, and the amount paid on each share, to the Governor of this commonwealth, and if it shall appear from such certificate that the subscriptions have been bona fide made, and the amount required by the said commissioners at the time of subscription actually paid, then the Governor shall, by letters patent, under his hand and the great seal of the state, create and erect the said subscribers, and if the whole number of shares aforesaid be not then subscribed, then also all those who shall afterwards subscribe to the number aforesaid, into one body politic and corporate, in deed and in law, with perpetual succession, and with all the privileges and franchises incident to a corporation, by the name, style and title of "the Harrisburg water company," and by such name the said subscribers, and such others as may thereafter become subscribers and share holders, shall be capable of holding their said capital stock, and the increase and profits thereof, and of enlarging the same from time to time by new subscriptions, in such manner and form as they shall think proper, not exceeding one hundred and twenty thousand dollars, and of purchasing, taking and holding to them and their successors and assigns, in fee simple or for any less estate, all such lands, tenements, hereditaments, goods, chattels or effects, as shall be necessary for them in the prosecution of their work, and in the full enjoyment thereof, and the same to sell and dispose of at their pleasure, if necessary, and of doing every act, matter and thing which a corporation or body politic may lawfully do.

When 20 persons take 1000 shares, charter may issue.

Corporate style.

Privileges & liabilities.

Organization, first election of officers, &c.

SECT. 3. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the five persons first named in the said letters patent, shall as soon as conveniently may be, give notice in the public newspapers printed in Harrisburg, of a time and place to be by them appointed, not less than thirty days after publishing such notice, at which time and place the said subscribers shall proceed to organize the said corporation, and shall choose by a majority of votes of the said subscribers, by ballot, to be delivered in person or by proxy, one president and six managers to conduct the business of the said company, who shall continue in office until the next succeeding annual election, as hereinafter provided, and until such other officers shall be elected, and shall make such by laws, rules and regulations not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of the United States and of this state, as may be necessary for the well ordering of the affairs of the said company: Provided, That no person or body corporate shall have more than twenty votes on his own account at any election, or in determining any question arising at such meeting, whatever number of shares such individual or body corporate may be entitled to, and that each person and body corporate holding one or more shares, not exceeding the number of twenty, shall be entitled to one vote for every share so held.

Proviso: Each share entitled to one vote up to 20.

Power to construct canal.

SECT. 4. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said president and managers shall have full power and authority immediately after obtaining their charter of incorporation, to construct a canal or race solely for the conveyance of water, and free for the owners or occupiers of lands through which the same passes for navigation, commencing at a point not less than ten nor more than one hundred perches above Brushy rock, and extending the same down the river near to the Pennsylvania canal, to, into or near to the land of John Fox, thence along the south side of the ridge, on the lowest practicable ground, to a point above State street, to the river, thence along the bank of the river to Pine street, in the borough of Harrisburg, but in such manner as not to interfere with or prejudice the public landing, excavating the same deep and wide enough the whole way: Provided, The same shall not exceed sixty feet in width at the surface of the water, without any dam or obstruction in the river being necessary; and when the said canal shall so be made, it shall be the duty of the said president and managers to construct, erect and build such machinery and devices at or near the bank of the river Susquehanna in Maclaysburg, or near the same, as may be necessary to conduct, by means of forcing pumps or otherwise, a sufficient quantity of water out of the river, through pipes, trunks or aqueducts, into a cistern or reservoir of sufficient dimensions, to be constructed on the unenclosed public ground near the State Capitol at such place as may be selected by the said president and managers, and approved of by the Governor, for the purpose of supplying the said town and borough with water, and the said company shall have the privileges to convey water from the same through the public ground, and the several streets, lanes and alleys of the said town and borough, and to alter, renew and repair any of the said works when necessary, and shall erect and keep in repair eight hydrants for the public use, of such form and size and at such places as the legislature may direct, near the public buildings, for extinguishing fire, and for such other purposes as the legislature may direct, at the expense of the company, and that no compensation shall be allowed for the use of the water from said hydrants: Provided, That the company shall prevent any injury to the state arsenal or other public buildings by the erection of a basin, cistern or reservoir on the public ground: Provided, That all damages to private property shall be ascertained and paid for before any work is commenced, on such private grounds as is hereinafter provided for, and the said company shall not do any damage or injury whatever to the works of the Pennsylvania canal, and shall be liable for all damages which shall be done to the Harrisburg and Millerstown turnpike road; that the said president and managers shall in such streets or parts of said town and borough, where pipes shall have been laid, erect hydrants, to be used solely for extinguishing fires and cleansing the streets, under the direction of the town council of Harrisburg, and they shall suffer individuals at all times to be supplied with water from Location.

Proviso.
Dimensions,
&c. of canal.Erection of machinery.Location of reservoir.Supply of water.Public hy-drants.Works not to injure public buildings.
Private damages.Penn. canal and turnpike.Hydrants for borough and domestic purposes.

the said pipes for domestic or manufacturing use, for such reasonable compensation as shall from time to time be agreed upon by the said president and managers and such individuals, according to certain uniform rates which the said president and managers shall adopt, and any person within the said town or borough, who shall draw off and appropriate any of the said water for domestic or manufacturing use, without having previously contracted for the same with the said president and managers, shall forfeit and pay for every such offence the sum of twenty dollars to the said president and managers, to be recovered before a justice of the peace in the same manner as debts of equal amount are now recoverable: Provided, That nothing contained in this act shall authorize the said company to make or erect any dam in the river Susquehanna: And provided further, That the said canal or race shall not pass through or within fifty feet of any public or private burial ground: And provided further, That in the construction of said race or canal no clay, earth or other material for embankment, shall be taken or removed from the land near to or adjoining the same, until all the clay, earth, or other material obtained in excavating the said race or canal along its whole course shall have been first applied to and used in the construction of the embankments thereof.

SECT. 5. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said company shall have power to lease, sell, or otherwise dispose of the surplus water and water power created by the said canal and works, as may best promote the interests of said company and the public, for manufacturing and other purposes: Provided, That the said company shall not be engaged or interested either directly or indirectly in establishing or conducting any manufactory whatever: And provided further, That the said company shall not sell, lease or otherwise dispose of any of their surplus water power until the borough of Harrisburg, and the village of Macláysburg, shall be fully supplied with water, agreeably to the true intent and purpose of this act.

SECT. 6. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the said president and managers, by and with their officers, artists and workmen, with their tools and implements, carts, wagons, carriages and beasts of draught and burden, to enter upon the lands over, contiguous and near to which the route, track and line of the said intended canal shall pass, for the purpose of procuring, taking and carrying away stone or earth necessary in the construction and completion of the said canal, or in the construction or completion of any locks, bridges, culverts, or other works and devices connected with and necessary thereto: Provided, That the said president and managers shall give, or cause to be given, notice to the owner or occu-

Penalty for offences.

Proviso.
Dam in river prohibited.

2d proviso.

3d proviso.

Sale of water power.

Proviso.
Company not to engage in manufactories.

2d proviso.
Citizens to be supplied first.

Right of entry upon lands for materials.

Proviso.

pier of lands thus entered upon, and doing as little damage as possible. Notice to owner.

SECT. 7. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid. That it shall and may be lawful for the said president and managers, by and with their officers, artists and workmen, with their tools and implements, to enter in and upon the lands and tenements of any person or persons, for the purposes of locating the said canal, and defining and marking the courses and distances thereof, with the boundaries of its banks, and of locating and marking out the sites for bridges, locks, culverts and other works connected therewith: first giving notice to the owner or occupiers of lands through which it is intended to pass, and doing as little damage thereto as possible. Right of entry to locate, &c.

SECT. 8. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the said president and managers to contract or agree with the owner or owners of any lands and tenements in and upon which they may enter for the purpose of procuring materials, under the provisions of the sixth section of this act, and with the owner or owners of any lands and tenements through and upon which the said canal may be located and laid, for the purchase of such materials, and for the purchase of such lands and tenements as may be necessary for locating, making, digging, walling and perfecting the said canal, and of erecting and establishing all the necessary locks, bridges, roads, culverts, and other works and devices by them deemed necessary and connected therewith, if they can agree with such owner or owners, but if in case of disagreement, or in case the owner thereof be feme covert, under age, non compos mentis, or out of the state, or otherwise incapacitated to sell and convey, then it shall and may be lawful for the president and managers of the said company, or for the owner or owners of, or persons interested in such lands and tenements, to apply to the judges of the court of Common Pleas of Dauphin county, by petition, whose duty it shall be forthwith to appoint five reputable and disinterested persons not connected with the parties, to view and assess the damages sustained by the owner or owners, or occupiers of any such lands and tenements, or which may probably be sustained in prosecution of said work, or by reason of the occupation and appropriation of such lands and tenements for the location and construction of the said canal or locks, bridges, ways and other works connected therewith, and it shall be the duty of the persons thus appointed by the said court, after being duly sworn or affirmed to do impartial justice between the parties, according to the best of their judgments and abilities, to go upon the premises and view the same, with the damage and injury complained of, and taking into consideration any advantage the said owner or Agreement with owners of land, &c. Arrangement for settlement in case of disagreement. 5 viewers to be appointed by court.

owners may derive from the location and construction of the said canal and its works through their said lands and tenements, make report to the said court as soon as convenient, of the amount of damages so found and assessed by them, if any, and shall, if the case relates to damage for the location of the said canal and works connected therewith, and the occupation of the land return to the said court, as part of their report a survey and draft setting out by courses and distances the lands thus occupied by the said company, and if the said report shall be approved by the said court, they shall direct the amount thus found and approved to be entered on the records of the said court, with costs, as in cases of roads, to be paid by said company: Provided, That either party shall have a right to appeal from any report made under this section, by giving security for costs, and in that case it shall be the duty of the court of Common Pleas to direct an issue to try the same, and in case the party appealing shall not recover a sum more favorable than the report of said viewers, then and in that case the said party shall pay all costs that shall accrue by reason of such trial by jury: And provided also, That such appeal shall not delay the operations of the company, but the same may proceed, upon entering two or more sureties, to be approved by the court, for the payment of the sum finally adjudged to be due, with costs, or upon depositing in court an amount which the said court shall adjudge sufficient to cover the same.

Report and confirmation.

Proviso.
Of appeals.

Ad Proviso.
Appeal not to delay operations.

Upon payment of damages, right vested in company.

SECT. 9. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That when the said president and managers shall pay to the owner or owners of any lands and tenements, or to his, her or their representatives, the full amount of damages found and assessed, according to the provisions of the eighth section of this act, for the lands and tenements on and through which the said canal and works therewith connected shall be located and constructed, with the costs allowed by the court, or shall pay into the said court for the use of the said owner, owners or occupants, his, her or their representatives, the said company shall be entitled to have and hold the lands and tenements so paid for, and described and set out in and by the draft accompanying and filed with the report of viewers to them and their successors and assigns for the purposes aforesaid.

Viewers to judge of location of bridges.

SECT. 10. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That whenever the said canal shall cross any public or private road or highway and shall divide the ground of any person into two parts, the viewers who shall inquire of the damages in manner hereinbefore directed, shall also find and report whether a bridge be necessary, and if so the said president and managers shall cause a bridge fit for the passage of carts, wagons and other carriages, to be built and forever after maintained and kept in repair, at all and every place so ascertained and reported to be necessary, and application may be made by any person interested at any time to the court for viewers to make report of the necessity for a bridge as aforesaid: Provided, That the owner, or owners of land through which said canal passes, shall not be prevented from constructing foot ways over said canal, and said company shall make or cause to be made, good and sufficient fences along the line or route of the said canal, as soon as expedient after the canal or race shall have been excavated through the different farms or lots whenever the owners of the same shall require.

Proviso.
Erection of footways.
Fences.

SECT. 11. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the stockholders of the said company shall meet on the first Monday of May in each year after they shall have received their letters patent as hereinbefore provided, at such place as shall be fixed by the rules and orders of the said company, to be made as aforesaid, for the purpose of choosing one president and six managers as aforesaid for the ensuing year, and until other officers are elected, and at such other times as they shall be assembled by the board of managers, at which annual or special meetings they shall have full power and authority to make, alter or repeal, by a majority of votes, all such by laws rules and regulations as aforesaid, and to do and perform every other corporate act: Provided, That if it shall happen that an election of president and managers be not made on the day above specified, the corporation shall not for that cause be dissolved, but it shall be lawful on any other day within sixty days thereafter, to hold and make an election in such manner as the by-laws of the corporation shall prescribe, and in case of the death, resignation, removal from the state, or other inability to act of the president or any of the managers, the board of managers shall choose another to supply his place until the next election, and the said president and managers, or a majority of them, shall at their first meeting after their election, choose a suitable person as a treasurer, and a secretary for the ensuing year.

Annual election of president and six managers.

General powers of stockholders.

Proviso.
For omission to hold elections on days specified.

Vacancies, how filled.

Treasurer and secretary.

SECT. 12. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the president and managers shall meet at such time and places, and be convened in such manner as shall be agreed on for transacting their business, and at such meetings four members shall form a quorum, and shall by themselves or secretary, keep minutes of all their transactions fairly entered in a book to be kept for that purpose, and a quorum being met they shall have full power and authority to agree with and appoint all such persons as they may judge necessary to carry on the intended works, and to fix their salaries and wages, and to fix and determine the times, manner and proportions when and where the stockholders shall pay the moneys due on their respective shares, in order to carry on the works, to draw on the treasurer for all moneys necessarily expended, by orders, which shall be signed by the president, or in his absence by a majority of a quorum, and generally to do and perform all such other acts, matters and things as by this act, and the by laws, orders and regulations of the company shall be committed to them.

General powers of the president and managers.

Certificates of stock.

SECT. 13. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said president and managers shall procure certificates, to be printed or written, for the shares of the capital stock of the said company, and deliver one thereof, signed by the president, and countersigned by the treasurer, and sealed with the common seal of the corporation, to each person for every share by him or her subscribed and held, which certificate shall be transferable by the owner, at his or her pleasure, in person or by attorney, in the presence of the president or treasurer, subject however, to all payments due or to become due thereon, and the assignee holding any certificate, having first caused the assignment to be entered in a book of the company to be kept for that purpose, shall be a member of the corporation, and be entitled to all the privileges and emoluments incident and belonging thereto: Provided, That to entitle the transferee to vote at any election or meeting of the stockholders, the transfer shall be bona fide, and made three months previous to such election or meeting.

Mode of transfer.

Proviso. Votes on transferred shares.

Penalty on delay in payment of instalments.

SECT. 14. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any stockholder, after thirty days public notice in the newspapers printed in Harrisburg, of the time and place appointed, in pursuance of the twelfth section of this act, for the payment of any portion of the said capital stock, in order to carry on the work, shall neglect to pay such proportion at the place appointed for the space of thirty days after the time so appointed for the payment thereof, every such stockholder, or his or her assignee, shall, in addition to the proportion so called for, pay at the rate of one per centum per month for such delay of payment; and if the same and additional penalty shall remain unpaid for such a space of time, as that the accumulated penalties shall be equal to the sums previously paid on account of the said share, then the said share and all the money thereon paid, shall be forfeited to the company, and may be sold by them to any person or persons willing to purchase, for such price as can be obtained therefor: Provided however, That nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to prevent the said company from recovering the amount of the capital stock so called for and remaining unpaid, together with the penalty, from any delinquent stockholder.

Forfeited shares sold. Proviso. Payment may be enforced.

SECT. 15. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said president and managers of the said company, may require of and from the treasurer, and of and from all and every person and persons employed by them, bonds in sufficient penalties and with sufficient sureties for the due and faithful discharge of the several duties and trusts to them or any of them respectively committed.

Bonds of treasurer and other officers.

SECT. 16. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said president and managers of the said company, shall keep fair and just accounts of all moneys received by them from the subscribers to the said undertaking for their subscriptions thereto, and all penalties for delay or non-payment thereof, and of all moneys by them expended, and on what account the same was expended, and shall in every year, not more than sixty nor less than thirty days previous to the time of holding an election for officers of the said company, prepare a particular statement thereof in writing, which, together with the vouchers and other evidences thereto belonging, shall be placed in the office of the treasurer of the company, for the free inspection of any stockholder or member of the company, who may think proper to examine the same, until the work shall be completed and all the costs and charges affecting the same, shall be fully paid and discharged; and it shall be the further duty of the said president and managers, after the completion of the said work, and the costs and expenses thereof paid and settled, to keep just and fair accounts of all moneys received by them, by their treasurer or other officers, arising from the sale of water rights, water rents or otherwise, and of the amount by them expended, and shall make and declare a dividend of the profits and income thereof among all the stockholders respectively, and shall, on the second Monday of April and October in every year, publish the half yearly dividend to be made of said income and profits to and among the stockholders, and of the time and place when and where the same shall be paid, and shall cause the same to be paid accordingly: Provided, That no dividend thus made shall impair the capital stock of the said company: And provided also, That no person shall be entitled to any share of the dividend declared, who has not paid such amount on the stock held by him as has been required by the president and managers: Provided, That nothing contained in this act shall be construed to authorize the said corporation to issue notes in the nature of bank notes, or to endorse notes in their corporate capacity, or to make discounts, or to receive deposits after the manner of any bank or banks, and in case the said company shall at any time violate the provisions of this section, all and every their chartered privileges shall cease and determine.

Annual statement of affairs to be open to inspection of stockholders.

Semi-annual declaration of dividends.

Proviso. Not to impair capital. 2d proviso. Delinquents debarred from dividends.

Company debarred from banking privileges.

SECT. 17. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if the company to be incorporated by the provisions of this act, shall not, within five years from and after the date thereof, erect and complete the works herein contemplated and authorized, then all the privileges hereby granted shall cease and determine.

Works of co. to be completed within 5 years.

Authority to burgess and council of Harrisburg to purchase stock of co'y. after 10 years from completion.

SECT. 18. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That at any time after the period of ten years from the construction of the canal or race hereby authorized, it shall be competent to the chief burgess and town council of the borough of Harrisburg to purchase the whole stock of the said company by paying to the said president and managers, for the use of the stockholders, the whole amount of the stock paid in by all of the stockholders, and such amount, in addition, as including the dividends already divided amongst the stockholders, shall amount to eight per centum per annum on the stock paid in, and on the payment of the same the said president and managers shall assign and transfer to the chief burgess and town council, and their successors in office for the use of the said borough, the whole capital stock of the said company, with the canal or race and water works belonging to the said company, and all other appurtenances, privileges and rents pertaining to it, from which period the said chief burgess and town council shall be vested with the same for the use of the said borough, who shall thereafter hold and enjoy the same with all of the rights and powers and privileges which the said president and managers held and enjoyed previous to said transfer, and thereafter the business of the said company shall be conducted by the chief burgess and town council of the said borough, the corporate name however remaining the same as before the transfer: And provided, That immediately after receiving the said money the said president and managers shall distribute the same amongst the stockholders, who may severally be entitled to the same, and on failure to do so within three months after the receipt of the money, the court of Common Pleas of the said county of Dauphin are hereby empowered, on the application of any one interested, to compel the payment of the same by attachment, and if any dispute as to the persons entitled to receive any part of the said moneys, shall arise, the said court are also hereby empowered to decide the same as to right and justice may belong.

Proviso.

Distribution of purchase money.

Contiguous swamps may be drained.

Excess of div. to go to education fund.

SECT. 19. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be lawful for the owners of bogs, swamps and meadows lying in the vicinity of the Pennsylvania canal and the river Susquehanna, to drain the same into the canal or race proposed, with the view by so doing of benefiting and improving the health of the borough and vicinity of Harrisburg.

SECT. 20. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all dividends above twelve per cent per annum on the amount actually paid in while the stock shall be held by the company hereby constituted, and all profits above six per cent per annum on the amount actually paid upon a transfer to the corporation of the borough of Harrisburg, as provided in the eighteenth section of this act, shall be paid into the state treasury, to be added to the fund for a general system of education.

SECT. 21. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of the said company, at all times, to afford a full supply of water to all the citizens of the borough of Harrisburg and Maclaysburg, for culinary and other domestic purposes, who shall apply for the same and agree to pay therefor, and for the extinguishment of fires, at the usual rates, and in case of any scarcity of water, the said citizens shall always be supplied in manner aforesaid, in preference to any person or persons who may purchase the use of the water for manufacturing purposes.

SECT. 22. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the legislature reserve the right in the event of the said canal company violating any of the provisions of this act, or of the privileges hereby granted to the said company being found injurious to the public, to revoke, alter or amend the charter hereby granted.

SAM'L. ANDERSON,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

JESSE R. BURDEN,

Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The fourteenth day of February, A. D. one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three.

GEO. WOLF.

No. 21.

AN ACT

For the relief of Benjamin Jones and George Eyster, soldiers, and Catharine Weikle and Magdalena Kunkle, widows of soldiers of the revolutionary war.

SECT 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the State Treasurer be and he is hereby authorized and required to pay Benjamin Jones, of York county, and George Eyster, of Adams county, soldiers of the revolution, or to their respective orders, forty dollars $40 grat. & ann. granted to B. Jones & G. Eyster.