

Application of proceeds of sale.

Trustees to account to township auditors.

SECT. 2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said Jacob Bloom, Richard D. Morrison, and Daniel Garber shall apply the proceeds of the said land, one half to the repairing of the present school house at the German stone church in said township, or in building a new school house thereat, as may be thought best, and the other half to repairing the present school house at the English Presbyterian church in said township, or in building a new school house thereat, as may be thought best; and the said trustees, or the survivor or survivors of them shall settle an account of the manner in which they shall have expended the proceeds of the said sale with the township auditors of the said township of Toboyne, within one year after they shall have made the said sale; and on neglect or refusal to do so, after being notified, the said auditors shall have power to compel them by attachment to make settlement, and to apply any balance that may be found in their hands to the purposes before mentioned, agreeably to the true intent and meaning of this act.

SAM'L. ANDERSON,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

THO'S. RINGLAND,

Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The eighth day of April, Anno Domini, eighteen hundred and thirty-three.

GEO. WOLF.

No. 126.

AN ACT

To enable the trustees of the German Reformed church, in the borough of Reading, in the county of Berks, to sell or mortgage certain real estate.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, it is represented to the Legislature that the German Reformed congregation of the borough of Reading own certain real estate, and have erected, at a considerable expense, a large and commodious brick church or meeting house, which is in part unpaid for, and that part of the said real estate may be converted into money for the payment of said debts: Therefore,

SECT. 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the trustees of the German Reformed church, in the borough of Reading, in the county of Berks, and their successors for the time being, be, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to sell or mortgage such part or parts of the real estate belonging to said congregation, as may be deemed necessary for the payment of their debts, and for the purchase of such other real estate as they may deem necessary for the use of the church, and to make and execute such deeds and mortgages, and other conveyances and assurances in the law, as the case may require: Provided, That the real estate, so purchased, shall not in amount and value exceed the sum of five thousand dollars.

SAM'L. ANDERSON,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

THO'S. RINGLAND,

Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The eighth day of April, Anno Domini, eighteen hundred and thirty-three.

GEO. WOLF.

No. 127.

AN ACT

Granting compensation to the legal heirs and representatives of George Foltze, for a certain tract of land situate in Salem, one of the seventeen townships in the county of Luzerne, and for other purposes.

SECT. 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That if George Foltze, or his legal heirs shall require it, the board of property shall examine into the title of the said George Foltze, or his heirs, to a tract of land situate in the township of Salem, one of the seventeen townships in the county of Luzerne, surveyed on a warrant dated the seventeenth of July, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-three, in the warrantee name of George Foltze, containing four hundred and sixty-eight acres; and if they find that the said land has been certified to Connecticut settlers, under the provisions of the act for adjusting the titles to lands in the seventeen townships in Luzerne county, and that the said George Foltze was fully, and fairly, and exclusively entitled to the said tract of land, except as against the hold-Duty of examination enjoined on board of property.