No. 29.

An Act

For the vacation of a part of Cherry alley, in the borough of Washington, in the county of Washington.

WHEREAS, the board of trustees of Washington college, in the borough of Washington, have recently purchased several lots with a view of erecting a new college edifice, which lots lie to the north of the present college campus, and are separated therefrom by an alley called Cherry Alley: And whereas, it has been represented that it would be conducive to the interests of said institution to have said lots attached to the present campus, so that the whole college ground may be embraced in one enclosure: Therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That so much of the alley called Cherry alley, in the general plan of the town of Washington, in the county of Washington, as runs from College street westward, two hundred and forty feet, or as far as the lots on both sides of said alley may hereafter be owned by the board of trustees of Washington college, be and the same is hereby declared to be vacated, and shall no longer be deemed and allowed to be a public way.

SECTION 2. The board of trustees of said college shall, at their own proper cost, before actually closing any part of said Cherry alley, cause to be made an accurate survey of such part Preamble.

Part of Cherry alley, in Washington, vacated.

Duty of the board of trustees.
