

No. 32.

An Act

To continue the benefit of the unexpired term of an auctioneer's commission to Matthew P. Mitchell.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That Matthew P. Mitchell, of the city of Philadelphia, commission merchant, late of the firm of Gillingham, Mitchell & Co., is hereby licensed as an auctioneer of the said city, for the period of eight months and thirteen days, and no longer, with the powers conferred by the license heretofore paid for and granted for one year to Mahlon Gillingham, but not used by him for the last eight months and thirteen days of said year: Provided, That the said Matthew P. Mitchell shall not enter upon the said business of an auctioneer, until he furnishes the security required by law for the payment to the State of all duties and taxes which may become due in consequence of his exercising the trade or occupation as aforesaid, and until he procures the consent of the partners of the said late firm of Gillingham, Mitchell & Co. to the provisions of this act.

JAMES THOMPSON,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

JACOB KERN,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The twenty-fourth day of February, Anno Domini, eighteen hundred and thirty-five.

GEO: WOLF.

—•••••

No. 33.

An Act

To alter the time of holding the courts in Washington county.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the term of the several courts in the county of Washington, which by the existing law now commences on the fourth Monday of January, shall, from and after the passage of this act, commence on the Monday next preceding the last Monday of December, in each and every year, and that so much of

Term of the courts in Washington
co. changed.