

No. 32.

An Act

To continue the benefit of the unexpired term of an auctioneer's commission to Matthew P. Mitchell.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That Matthew P. Mitchell, of the city of Philadelphia, commission merchant, late of the firm of Gillingham, Mitchell & Co., is hereby licensed as an auctioneer of the said city, for the period of eight months and thirteen days, and no longer, with the powers conferred by the license heretofore paid for and granted for one year to Mahlon Gillingham, but not used by him for the last eight months and thirteen days of said year: Provided, That the said Matthew P. Mitchell shall not enter upon the said business of an auctioneer, until he furnishes the security required by law for the payment to the State of all duties and taxes which may become due in consequence of his exercising the trade or occupation as aforesaid, and until he procures the consent of the partners of the said late firm of Gillingham, Mitchell & Co. to the provisions of this act.

JAMES THOMPSON,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

JACOB KERN,

Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The twenty-fourth day of February, Anno Domini, eighteen hundred and thirty-five.

GEO: WOLF.

—•••••

No. 33.

An Act

To alter the time of holding the courts in Washington county.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the term of the several courts in the county of Washington, which by the existing law now commences on the fourth Monday of January, shall, from and after the passage of this act, commence on the Monday next preceding the last Monday of December, in each and every year, and that so much of

Term of the courts in Washington
co. changed.

any law as is inconsistent herewith be and the same is hereby repealed.

SECTION 2. The coming spring term of the several courts of the said county of Washington, which according to the present law should commence on the fourth Monday of March next, shall, instead thereof, commence on the fourth Monday of April next; and all jurors, witnesses and other persons, bound by recognizance or otherwise to appear at the said March term, shall appear before the judges of the said courts on the said fourth Monday of April: and all writs, process, precepts, recognizances, and other proceedings in the said courts, or returnable to the said fourth Monday of March, shall be entitled as of March term, and be as good and effectual, to all intents and purposes, as if no change was made in the time of holding said spring term of the said courts: and the sheriff of the said county shall give at least three weeks' public notice, in two of the newspapers printed in said county, of the change in the time of holding said courts, the expense thereof to be paid out of the county funds: Provided, That this second section shall not be construed to alter the law fixing the time of holding the spring term of the said courts, except in so far as relates to the one term therein mentioned.

Spring term of courts, time of commencing altered.

Notice of the change to be given.

Proviso.

SECTION 3. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, as soon as he conveniently can after the passage of this act, to transmit a certified copy thereof to the sheriff of said county.

Sec'y to transmit copy of act.

JAMES THOMPSON,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

JACOB KERN,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The twenty-sixth day of February, Anno Domini, eighteen hundred and thirty-five.

GEO: WOLE.

—•••••
No. 34.

An Act

Providing for the use of horses on parts of the Allegheny Portage railroad and Philadelphia and Columbia rail-road.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the canal commissioners are hereby authorized and required to contract with individuals or associations of individuals, for the supply of such horses or other beasts of draft,