Annual meeting.

SECTION 4. The said company shall meet on the first Monday of November, in every year, at such place as shall be fixed by their by-laws, for the purpose of choosing such other officers as aforesaid for the ensuing year, in manner aforesaid, and at such other times as they shall be summoned by the managers, in such manner and form as shall be prescribed by their by-laws, at which annual or special meetings they shall have full power and authority to make, alter or repeal, by a majority of votes, in manner aforesaid, all such by-laws, rules, orders and regulations made as aforesaid, and to do and perform any other corporate act.

Certificates of stock.

SECTION 5. The president and managers first to be chosen as aforesaid, shall procure certificates, to be written or printed, for all the shares of the said stock of the said company, and shall deliver one such certificate, signed by the president, and countersigned by the treasurer, and sealed with the common seal of the said corporation, to each person for every share by him subscribed and held, which certificate shall be transferable at his pleasure, in person or by attorney, in the presence of the president or treasurer, subject however, to all payments due and to become due thereon, and the assignee holding any certificate, having first caused the assignment to be entered in a book of the company, to be kept for that purpose, shall be a member of said corporation, and for every certificate by him held shall be entitled to one share of the capital stock, and of all the estates and emoluments of the company, and to vote as aforesaid at the meetings thereof.

SECTION 6. If after thirty days notice, in three or more of the public newspapers printed in the counties of Armstrong, Jefferson, and Clearfield, of the time and place appointed for the payment of any proportion or dividend of the said capital stock, in order to carry on the work, any stockholder shall neglect to pay any such proportion or dividend, at the place appointed, for the space of thirty days after the time so appointed, every such stockholder, or his assignee, shall, in addition to the dividends so called for, pay at the rate of five per cent. per month for delay of such payment; and if the same, and the said additional penalty, shall remain unpaid for such space of time, as that the accumulated penalties shall become equal to the sums before paid in part, and on account of such shares, the same shall be forfeited to the said company, and may and shall be sold to any person or persons willing to purchase, for such price as can be obtained for the same.

Penalty for neglect to pay instalments.

SECTION 7. The said president and managers shall meet at such times and places as shall be ordained by their by-laws, and when met, six members shall be a quorum, who, in the absence of the president, may choose a chairman, and shall keep minutes of all their transactions fairly entered in a book, and a quorum being formed, they shall have power and authority to appoint all such surveyors, engineers, superintendents, and other artists and officers, as they shall deem necessary to carry on their intended works, and fix their salaries and wages; to ascertain the times when, and the manner and proportion in which the stockholders shall pay the moneys due on their respective shares, in order to carry on the work; to draw orders on the treasurer for moneys necessary to pay the salaries and wages of persons by them employed, and for labor done and materials provided in the prosecution of the work; which orders shall be entered on their book of minutes, and shall be signed by the president, or in his absence by a majority of a quorum, and counter-than the person of whom such toll is demanded shall have travelled along said road, or shall demand and receive greater toll from any person or persons than such toll gatherer is authorized to demand and receive by virtue of this act, such toll-gatherers shall forfeit and pay the sum of ten dollars for every such offence, to the use of the poor of the township in which the forfeiture is incurred, and for the payment of which the said company shall be responsible.

drawn by oxen &c.

SECTION 12. All such carriages as aforesaid, to be drawn by oxen in the whole, or partly by horses and partly by oxen, two oxen shall be estimated as equal to one horse in charging all the aforesaid tolls, and every mule as equal to one horse.

Neglect to keep road in repair.

SECTION 13. If the said company shall neglect to keep the said road in good and perfect order for the space of ten days, and information thereof shall be given to any justice of the peace of the neighborhood, within the county where the repair ought to be made, such justice shall issue a precept to be directed to any constable, commanding him to summon three disinterested persons to meet at a certain time in said precept, to be mentioned at the place in the said road which shall be complained of, which meeting notice shall be given to the keeper of the gate or turnpike nearest thereto, within the said county, and the said justice shall at such time and place, on the oaths or affirmations of the said persons, inquire whether the said road, or any part thereof, is in such good and perfect order and repair as aforesaid, shall cause an inquisition to be made under the hands of himself and a majority of the said persons, and if the said road shall be found by the said inquisition to be out of order and repair, contrary to the true intent and meaning of this act, the said justice shall certify and send one copy of the said inquisition to each of the keepers of the turnpikes or gates, between which such defective place shall be, and from thenceforth the tolls hereby granted to be collected at such turnpikes or gates shall cease to be demanded, paid or collected, until the said defective part or parts of the said road shall be put in good and perfect order and repair as aforesaid; and if the same shall not be so put into good and perfect order and repair, before the next general court of quarter sessions of the peace, to be held for the county in which the defect is proved to be aforesaid, justices shall certify and send a copy of the inquisition aforesaid to the justices of the said court, and the said justices shall thereupon cause process to issue, and bring in the body or bodies of the person or persons entrusted by the company, with the care and superintendence of such part of the said road as shall be so found defective, and shall proceed thereon as in cases of supervisors of the highways for neglect of their duty, and if the person or persons entrusted by the said company aforesaid, shall be convicted of the offence by the said inquisition charged, the said court shall give judgment according to the nature and aggravation of the neglect as according to right and justice, would be proper in the case of supervisors of the highways neglecting their duties, and the fines and penalties so to be imposed, shall be recovered in the same manner as fines for misdemeanors are usually recovered in the said court, and shall be paid to the supervisors of the highways of the township wherein the offence was committed, to be applied to repairing the public roads within such township.

SECTION 14. If any person or persons whosoever owning, riding in or driving any sulky, chair or chaise, phaeton, cart, wagon, wain, sleigh, sled or other carriage of burden, or pleasure riding, or leading any horse, mule, mare or gelding, or driving any hogs, sheep or other cattle, shall therewith pass through any private gates or bars along, or over any private gates or private bars, or along or over any private passage, way or ground, near to or adjoining any turnpike or gate erected, or which shall be erected in pursuance of this act, with an intent to defraud the company and avoid the payment of toll or duty, for passing through any such gate or turnpike, or if any person or persons shall with such intent, take off or cause to be taken off, any horse, mule, mare or gelding, or other cattle, from any sulkey, chair, chaise, phaeton, cart, wagon, wain, sleigh, sled or other carriage of burden or pleasure, or practice any other fraudulent means or device, with the intent that the payment of any such toll or duty may be evaded or lessened, all and every person or persons in all or every or any of the ways or manners aforesaid offending, shall for every such offence, respectively, forfeit and pay to the president and managers and company of the Armstrong, Jefferson and Clearfield turnpike road, any sum not exceeding ten dollars, to be sued for and recovered with costs of suit, before any justice of the peace in like manner, and subject to the same rules and regulations as debts of a similar amount are by law sued for and recovered: Provided always, That if any person or persons shall be prosecuted under this section of this act, and the said prosecution shall not be sustained on the part of the prosecutors, then in that case the person or persons prosecuted as aforesaid, shall receive from the company the sum of ten dollars in lieu of damages arising from delay and a vexatious prosecution, recoverable as other fines under this act.

SECTION 15. The president and managers of the said company shall keep fair and just accounts of all moneys received by them from the said commissioners, and from the subscribers to the said undertaking, on account of the several subscriptions and of all penalties for the delay of payment thereof and of the amount of profits on the shares which may be forfeited as aforesaid, also all moneys by them expended in the prosecution of their work, and shall once at least in every year, submit such accounts to a general meeting of the stockholders, until the said road shall be complete, and until all costs, charges and expenses of effecting the same shall be fully paid and discharged, and the aggregate amount of such expenses shall be liquidated and ascertained, and if upon such liquidation, or when the capital stock of the said company shall be nearly expended, it shall be found that the said capital stock will be insufficient to complete the said road, according to the true intent and meaning of this act, it shall and may be lawful for the said president, managers and company, at a stated or special meeting to be convened according to the provisions of this act or their own by-laws, to increase the number of shares to such an extent as shall be deemed sufficient to accomplish the work and to receive and demand the moneys subscribed for such shares in like manner and like penalties as are hereinbefore provided, for the original subscription as shall be provided for by their by-laws.

Power to increase number of shares.

To keep accounts of all monies received.

Dividends and surplus.

Mile stones.

Penalty for defacing &c.

SECTION 16. The said president, managers and company, shall also keep a just and true account of all and every of the moneys received by their several and respective collectors of tolls, at the several and respective gates, or turnpikes on the said road, from the beginning to the end thereof, and shall make and declare a dividend, and when such dividends shall exceed twelve per cent per annum, then one half of the surplus exceeding twelve per cent to be paid into the state treasury for the benefit of the education fund, which abstract shall be verified by the oath or affirmation of the president or treasurer of said company; the clear profits and income thereof, all contingent costs and charges being first deducted among all the subscribers to the said company's stock, and shall on the first Monday in November and May, in every year, publish the half yearly dividend made of the said clear profits among the stockholders, and of the time and place when and where the same will be paid, and shall cause the same to be paid accordingly.

SECTION 17. The said company shall cause mile stones to be placed on the side of the said road, whereon shall be marked in plain legible characters the respective number of miles which each stone is distant from the commencement of the said turnpike road, and at every gate or turnpike by them to be fixed on the said road, shall cause the distance from Ridgway and the distance from the nearest gates or turnpikes in each direction, to be marked in legible characters, designating the number of miles and fractions of a mile on the said gates or some other conspicuous place for the information of travellers and others using the said road; and if any person shall wilfully destroy the said mile-stones, or deface the same, or deface the directions made on the said gates, or other conspicous places aforesaid, or shall, without permission of the acting superintendent of the said road, throw out upon the road or within the limits of the same, and suffer to remain for the space of one day, any mould, dirt, shavings, weeds or rubbish of any kind, such person being convicted thereof, by the evidence of one or more credible and disinterested witnesses, before a disinterested justice of the peace of the county, he or she shall be adjudged by the said justice to pay a fine not exceeding three dollars, to be recovered with costs as debts of like amount are by law recoverable; which fine, when recovered, shall be paid by the said justice to the treasurer of the said company for the use of the said company.

SECTION 18. All wagoners, and drivers of carriages of all kinds, whether of burden or pleasure, using the said road, shall, except when passing by a carriage of slower draught, keep their horses and carriages on the right hand side of the said road in the passing direction, leaving the otherside of the said road free and clear for other carriages to pass and repass; and if any driver shall offend against this provision, he shall forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding two dollars, to any person who shall be obstructed in his passage, as will sue for the same, to be recovered, with costs, before any justice, in the same manner as debts of like amount are by law recoverable; and no wagoner, or driver of carriages of any kind, whether of burden or pleasure, using said road, shall pass any other vehicle going in the same direction, at a faster gait than a trot, at a rate not exceeding eight miles per hour, under a penalty of twenty dollars for each offence, recoverable before any justice of the peace: one-half to the use of the said company, and the other half to the use of the informant. To keep right side of road. Penalty.

SECTION 19. If the said company shall not proceed to carry on the said work within five years after the passage of this act, or shall not within ten years afterwards complete the said road according to the true intent and meaning of this act, then in either of those cases all and singular, the rights, liberties and privileges and franchises hereby granted to the company shall revert to this commonwealth.
