

respects have the same privilege, and be under the same restrictions, as if they had been originally organized an infantry company.

SECTION 2. That the name of the Williamsburg Infantry, in Hunting-Williamsburg In-don county, be changed to that of the Williamsburg Blues: Provided, fantry changed.
That said company shall preserve all its rights, privileges and immunities.

SECTION 3. That the name of the Plum Creek Independent Rifle Blues, in Allegheny county, be changed to that of Marion Greens. Plum Creek Independent Rifle
Blues changed.

JAMES ROSS SNOWDEN,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

WILLIAM BIGLER,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The first day of February, one thousand eight hundred and forty-four.

DAVID R. PORTER.

No. 17.

A FURTHER SUPPLEMENT

To the act, entitled "An Act erecting parts of Northampton and Monroe counties into a separate county, to be called Carbon," passed the thirteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, and for other purposes.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That all suits, actions and cases, now pending and undetermined in the several Suits and actions courts of Northampton county and Monroe county, where both parties in Northampton in such suit or suits are now resident in the county of Carbon, shall be and Monroe coun-transferred to the respective courts of Carbon county, and shall be considered as pending in said county, and shall be proceeded in like manner as if the same had been originally commenced in said county of Carbon, except that the fees on the same, due to the officers of Northampton and Monroe counties, shall be paid to them respectively, when recovered by the prothonotary, clerk or sheriff, of Carbon county; and the prothonotary of Northampton county and the prothonotary of Monroe county, shall, on or before the twentieth day of February next, respectively, procure dockets and copy therein all the docket entries respecting said suits, actions and cases, to be transferred as aforesaid;
and shall on or before the said twentieth day of February, have the said dockets, together with the records, declarations and papers on file, respecting said suits, actions and cases, ready to be delivered to the prothonotary of Carbon county; the expenses of said dockets and copying, to be paid by the said county of Carbon, on warrants to be drawn by the commissioners of said county, on the treasurer thereof: Provided however, That the parties to any such suit, action or case, may have the same tried in the county where it may be now pending, by filing an agreement to that effect, in the proper office in said county.

Prothonotary of Northampton co. SECTION 2. That it shall be the duty of the prothonotary of the county of Northampton, to transcribe, or cause to be transcribed, on or before the twentieth day of February next, the docket entries of all judgments in the common pleas of said county, and transcripts of judgments of justices of the peace, filed in said court, where the parties to said judgments are now resident in the county of Carbon, and at the request of the plaintiffs, any judgments which are now a lien on any lands in said county of Carbon, and certify the same to the court of common pleas of Carbon county; and it shall be the duty of the prothonotary of Carbon county, on the receipt of the same, to file such transcripts and certificate in his office, and to enter such judgments in the judgment docket of Carbon county; and said judgments shall have the same force and effect, and be proceeded in like manner as if the same had been originally rendered in Carbon county: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to impair the lien of any such judgment in Northampton county, or prevent the plaintiff from proceeding on it to collect his money, out of any property of the defendant in Northampton county, in the same manner that he could have done had this act not been passed: Provided, That all expenses incurred under this section, shall be paid by the county of Carbon, in the manner provided in the first section of this act.

Register of Carbon county. SECTION 3. That the register for the probate of wills and granting letters of administration of the county of Carbon, and the register's and orphans' court of said county, shall have and exercise exclusively, the same power and jurisdiction over the legal representatives, and the estates of decedents in all cases, when such decedents resided at and immediately before their death, within the bounds of the territory now comprising Carbon county, and whose estates are unsettled, as the said register and the said courts respectively would have had and exercised, had such decedents died within its limits since the erection of said territory into a separate county: Provided, That all original papers relating to such estates, shall remain in the offices in Northampton, where now filed, certified copies of which shall be granted at the request and expense of the person applying for them, which copies shall be received and acted on as original, in the courts of Carbon.

Writs in district court of Erie, Crawford and Venango counties. SECTION 4. All writs of execution or other process upon judgments, in the district courts of the counties of Erie, Crawford, Venango and Mercer, shall be returnable to the next term of the court of common pleas, to be holden for said counties respectively, in all cases where no term of said district courts intervened between the issuing of said process, and the time when the said district courts expire by law.

Repeal. SECTION 5. That so much of any act or acts heretofore passed, as are hereby altered or amended, or are inconsistent herewith, shall be and the same are hereby repealed.

JAMES ROSS SNOWDEN,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
WILLIAM BIGLER,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The first day of February, one thousand eight hundred and forty-four.

DAVID R. PORTER.