

No. 18.

AN ACT

Relative to the claim of Joseph Morrison, of Crawford county.

WHEREAS, By an act of assembly passed April eighth, one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, entitled "An Act to provide for the payment of the domestic creditors of this commonwealth, sale of state stocks, and for other purposes," it is among other provisions enacted, that no claim from and after the first day of December then next, shall be entered on the books of the auditor general:

Preamble.

And whereas, The claim of Joseph Morrison has been duly settled, and the amount ascertained by the board of appraisers and canal commissioners, but the same was neglected to be entered at the time above stated, on the books of the auditor general; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the state treasurer be authorized and required to pay such sum of money as has been ascertained to be due as aforesaid, out of any moneys in the treasury, not otherwise appropriated.

JAMES ROSS SNOWDEN,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

WILLIAM BIGLER,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The fifth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and forty-four.

DAVID R. PORTER.

No. 19.

AN ACT

To continue the act to graduate lands on which purchase money is due and unpaid to the commonwealth.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the provisions of the act, entitled "An Act to graduate lands on which the money is due and unpaid to the commonwealth of Pennsylvania," passed the tenth day of April, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, shall be and the same is hereby continued in force until the tenth day of March, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and forty-six.

Patenting in-lots in Erie, Waterford, Beaver, Franklin & Warren.

SECTION 2. The time for patenting the in-lots and out-lots, in the towns of Erie, Waterford, Beaver, Franklin and Warren, authorized to be appraised by the fifth section of the act, entitled "An Act empowering the burgess and town council of the borough of Erie, to borrow money and supply the said borough with water," passed the 13th day of April, A. D. 1838, be extended to the 10th day of March, A. D. 1846.

JAMES ROSS SNOWDEN,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

WILLIAM BIGLER,

Speaker of the Senate.

We do certify that the bill, entitled "An Act to continue the act to graduate lands on which purchase money is due and unpaid to the commonwealth," was presented to the governor on the twenty-fifth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, and was not returned within ten days, (Sundays' excepted,) after it had been presented to him; wherefore, it has, agreeably to the constitution of this commonwealth, become a law in like manner as if he had signed it.

JOHN J. M'CAHEN,

Clerk of the Senate.

WILLIAM JACK,

Clerk of the House of Representatives.

HARRISBURG, February 7, 1844.

No. 20.

AN ACT

Supplementary to an act, entitled "An Act to incorporate the Independent mutual fire insurance company of Bucks, Montgomery and Philadelphia counties," passed the tenth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and forty-three.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That in default of the payment of the rates mentioned and prescribed by the sixth section of the act to which this is a supplement, it shall and may be lawful, to and for the president and managers of the said company, to proceed and collect the same, in like manner as common debts are now by law collected: And any person or persons refusing to pay his, her, or their proportionable parts of such rates, may, by the managers for the time being, be excluded and debarred from any benefit or advantage from his, her, or their insurances, respectively, and all right to the stock of said company, and shall, notwithstanding, be liable to said rates, pursuant to his, her, or their covenants and agreements.

SECTION 2. That the seventh section of the act to which this is a
