

Patenting in-lots in Erie, Waterford, Beaver, Franklin & Warren.
SECTION 2. The time for patenting the in-lots and out-lots, in the towns of Erie, Waterford, Beaver, Franklin and Warren, authorized to be appraised by the fifth section of the act, entitled "An Act empowering the burgess and town council of the borough of Erie, to borrow money and supply the said borough with water," passed the 13th day of April, A. D. 1838, be extended to the 10th day of March, A. D. 1846.

JAMES ROSS SNOWDEN,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

WILLIAM BIGLER,

Speaker of the Senate.

We do certify that the bill, entitled "An Act to continue the act to graduate lands on which purchase money is due and unpaid to the commonwealth," was presented to the governor on the twenty-fifth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, and was not returned within ten days, (Sundays' excepted,) after it had been presented to him; wherefore, it has, agreeably to the constitution of this commonwealth, become a law in like manner as if he had signed it.

JOHN J. M'CAHEN,

Clerk of the Senate.

WILLIAM JACK,

Clerk of the House of Representatives.

HARRISBURG, February 7, 1844.

No. 20.

AN ACT

Supplementary to an act, entitled "An Act to incorporate the Independent mutual fire insurance company of Bucks, Montgomery and Philadelphia counties," passed the tenth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and forty-three.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That in default of the payment of the rates mentioned and prescribed by the sixth section of the act to which this is a supplement, it shall and may be lawful, to and for the president and managers of the said company, to proceed and collect the same, in like manner as common debts are now by law collected: And any person or persons refusing to pay his, her, or their proportionable parts of such rates, may, by the managers for the time being, be excluded and debarred from any benefit or advantage from his, her, or their insurances, respectively, and all right to the stock of said company, and shall, notwithstanding, be liable to said rates, pursuant to his, her, or their covenants and agreements.

SECTION 2. That the seventh section of the act to which this is a supplement, and so much of the sixth section of said act as is hereby altered or supplied, be and the same is hereby repealed.

JAMES ROSS SNOWDEN,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

WILLIAM BIGLER,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The twelfth day of February, Anno Domini, one thousand eight hundred and forty-four.

DAVID R. PORTER.

No. 21.

AN ACT

To change the Franklin Blues, an infantry company of Chambersburg, into a rifle company, to be called the Franklin Riflemen, and the Franklin Guards, of Venango county, to that of Franklin Artillery.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same. That from and after the passage of this act, the infantry company of the borough of Chambersburg, in the county of Franklin, called the Franklin Blues, shall be, and it is hereby changed into a rifle corps, to be called the Franklin Rifleman, and that the seven years service of each individual member thereof, shall be calculated from the respective date of his enrollment as a member; and it shall be the duty of the adjutant general to furnish, upon the order of the proper brigade inspector, out of any of the arsenals of this commonwealth, where a sufficient number of unappropriated arms and accoutrements may be had, the usual stand of rifles and accoutrements for the use of the said company, under the restrictions, provisions and securities as are now provided by law; and the election which was held by the said company for officers on the seventeenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, is hereby legalized, and commissions directed to be issued to the said officers elect, by the proper authority: Provided, That before the said company shall receive any of the arms and accoutrements, as provided for in this act, the arms and accoutrements heretofore received by said company, shall first be returned, if not already returned, to the proper person, duly authorized to receive the same.

Franklin Riflemen.

SECTION 2. That the volunteer infantry company, the Franklin Guards, in the county of Venango, shall be changed into an artillery company, called the Franklin Artillery, subject to same regulations and provisions of the foregoing section.

Franklin Artillery.
