

No. 22.

A SUPPLEMENT

To the act, entitled "An Act to incorporate the York county mutual insurance company."

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the business of the York county insurance company, shall extend to and embrace in its objects the county of York, with the same force and effect as if such provision were contained in the original act of incorporation; and that the election of the persons elected on the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, by the applicants for insurance in said corporation, shall be valid.

Interest on deposit notes.

SECTION 2. That so much of the act of incorporation of said company, as directs the payment of annual interest on the deposit notes, is hereby repealed; and that when it may be necessary to defray the incidental charges and expenses of transacting the business of the company, it shall be lawful for the directors to determine how much shall be paid on the deposit notes; which sum, so determined, shall not exceed in each year, twenty-five cents for each thousand dollars worth of property insured.

Prothonotary of York county.

SECTION 3. That the prothonotary of York county shall enter the memorandums filed in his office, against the members of said company, in a docket to be kept for that purpose, and shall receive in each case a fee of twenty-five cents, to be paid by the insurer.

JAMES ROSS SNOWDEN,

Speaker of the House of Representatives,

WILLIAM BIGLER,

Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The twelfth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and forty-four.

DAVID R. PORTER.
