SUPPLEMENT

To an act authorizing the survey and regulation of a part of Penn township, in the county of Philadelphia, approved April nineteenth, one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, and for other purposes.

Incorporation.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the inhabitants of the district of Penn, as the same is bounded and described in the act of assembly of April nineteenth, one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, authorizing the survey and regulation of a part of Penn township, in the county of Philadelphia, be, and they and their successors forever are, truly constituted a corporation and body politic, in fact and in law, by the name, style and title of “the commissioners and inhabitants of the district of Penn,” and by that name to have perpetual succession.

Election of commissioners, &c.

SECTION 2. That the inhabitants residing within the said described district, who are, or who shall be qualified to vote for members of assembly of this commonwealth, shall meet on the third Friday of March next, at the time and place of holding the constables' election, and elect by ballot nine commissioners, who shall be qualified voters in said district, viz: three for one year, three for two years, and three for three years; and every year thereafter they shall elect three commissioners to serve for three years; and said commissioners shall meet on the second Monday after their election, and organize by electing a president, clerk, treasurer and solicitor, and make such rules and regulations as may be necessary for their government.

Powers and privileges.

SECTION 3. That said commissioners shall have all the powers, rights and privileges now possessed by the supervisors of said district, in addition to those conferred by the act of April nineteenth, one thousand
