

No. 64.

A SUPPLEMENT

To an act, entitled "An Act to provide for the erection of a poor house for the employment and support of the poor, in the county of Washington," passed the sixth day of April, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That in all cases, where it becomes necessary to remove more than one person of the same family at the same time, to the poor house, in the county of Washington, the justice shall include all the said paupers in one order, and charge for one order only. And whenever more than one pauper is removed to the poor house at the same time, by one person, mileage shall be allowed on one person only, with reasonable charges.

Orders for removal.

SECTION 2. That when an order for the removal of a pauper is obtained, it will be the duty of the person obtaining such order, within five days thereafter, to notify one of the directors or steward thereof; and in case of neglecting to give notice as aforesaid, the directors may refuse to pay all charges that accrue against such pauper, until they are notified as aforesaid. And when an order of removal has issued during the lifetime of a person who should have been received as a pauper, and dies before removal, the directors shall pay the funeral expenses, and no more.

Repeal.

SECTION 3. That so much of the said act as is hereby altered or supplied, be and the same is hereby repealed.

JAMES ROSS SNOWDEN,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

WILLIAM BIGLER,
Speaker of the Senate.
