

discipline of the Evangelical Lutheran church; nor to the constitution and laws of the United States, or of this commonwealth.

JAMES ROSS SNOWDEN,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

WILLIAM BIGLER,

Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The fourteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-four.

DAVID R. PORTER.

No. 73.

A FURTHER SUPPLEMENT

To the act entitled "An Act relating to county rates and levies, and township rates and levies," passed the fifteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall be the duty of the supervisors of the highways, of every township and borough in the counties of Schuylkill, Northumberland and Carbon, annually, to select one of their number, or appoint some suitable inhabitant of the township or borough, to be collector of the road taxes levied or assessed for such township or borough; which supervisor, or other person appointed collector as aforesaid, shall give bond, with two or more sufficient securities, to be approved by the township or borough auditors, and deposited with them; which said bond shall be in the name of such township or borough, and the condition thereof shall be, that such collector shall well and truly collect and pay over to the township or borough treasurer, if one be elected or appointed, and if not, then to the supervisors, or account for according to law, the whole amount of the taxes charged and assessed, in the duplicate delivered to such collector: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent all persons rated for road taxes, from working out their respective taxes, in the manner now provided by law.

Schuylkill county

Northumberland county.

SECTION 2. That it shall and may be lawful for the electors of every township and borough in the counties of Schuylkill and Northumberland, annually, at the time and place of electing supervisors, to elect a township or borough treasurer, who shall give such bond, and perform such duties, and be subject to the like penalties, as are provided for in the ninety-fifth, ninety-sixth, ninety-seventh and ninety-eighth sections of act of the fifteenth of April, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, entitled "An Act relating to counties and townships, and county and township officers."

Bucks county.

SECTION 3. In lieu of the commissions and per centage now by law allowed to collectors of state, county, township and school tax, in the county of Bucks, the said collectors shall be allowed and permitted to retain as compensation for their services, three per cent. on the amount collected, and no more.

SECTION 4. That so much of any act or acts of assembly, as author-izes the supervisors to assess the road taxes at a rate exceeding five mills on the dollar of the valuation, be and the same are hereby repealed, as far as relates to the counties of Crawford and Clearfield. Road taxes.

SECTION 5. That so far as any law is hereby altered or supplied, be and the same is hereby repealed. Repeal.

JAMES ROSS SNOWDEN,
Speaker of the House of Representatives,
WILLIAM BIGLER,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The fourteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-four.

DAVID R. PORTER.

No. 74.

AN ACT

Supplementary to the several acts relating to the borough of Frankford, in the county of Philadelphia.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this act, it shall be lawful for the freemen of the borough of Frankford, in Philadelphia county, who shall have resided therein ninety days immediately preceding the day of election, and who shall be otherwise qualified agreeably to the constitution and laws of this state, to vote for members of the general assembly, to meet together at the Cross Keys' tavern in said borough, and afterwards at such place within the borough as the council for the time being may appoint, between the hours of two and eight o'clock in the afternoon on the first Monday in May next, and then and there choose by ballot, out of such of the inhabitants residing within the said borough, who according to the constitution and laws of this state are eligible to be elected as members of the house of representatives, in the manner prescribed for choosing members of the said house of representatives, nine suitable persons for councilmen, three of whom shall serve for the term of one year; three for the term of two years; and three for the term of three years; to be determined by said council by lot, who shall have all the powers and authorities given by act of incorporation granted by the general assembly, March seventh, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred, to the burgesses and assistants of said borough, and the several acts supplementary thereto, and on that day in the same month, annually thereafter, shall elect as hereinafter provided; also, shall be chosen at the same time and place annually, by the freemen as aforesaid, one suitable person for superintendent of highways, who shall, under the direction of councils, keep in repair all the streets, lanes, roads and alleys in the aforesaid borough of Frankford, now opened for public use or which shall be opened under the act of fifth of April, one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, entitled "An Act to provide for a survey Election of councilmen.

Superintendent of highways.