

No. 127.

AN ACT

To authorize the sale and conveyance of certain real estate.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the directors of the poor and of the house of employment for the county of Chester, be and they are hereby authorized to sell, at public sale, after giving at least two weeks public notice thereof, upon such terms as they may deem expedient, all the right, title and interest of Ann Boyers, now in the poor house of said county, to any lands to or in which she may have any title or property in the county of Chester; and the sale or sales so made shall be good and valid, to convey all the interest of the said Ann Boyers, in any lands, as aforesaid; and the said directors are hereby required faithfully to apply the proceeds to the payment of the debts of the said Ann Boyers, and to her support and maintenance, so long as she remains a charge upon the county of Chester; and pay the balance, if any, after she shall cease to be a charge, or shall die, to the said Ann Boyers, or her legal representatives.

SECTION 2. That the commissioners of the county of Armstrong, are hereby authorized and required to convey to the Kittanning cemetery company, out-lot, number two, in the borough of Kittanning, in said county, held by them in trust, by virtue of a deed dated the twenty-first day of September, Anno Domini, one thousand eight hundred and eighteen, recorded in said county, in book, volume three, page three hundred and forty-two, from Paul Morrow, and Lydia, his wife, to Isaac Wagler, David Reynolds and Joseph Rankin, then commissioners of said county, and their successors in office; and the deed made by the said commissioners to the said Kittanning cemetery company, shall be held good and valid to all intents and purposes.

JAMES ROSS SNOWDEN,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

WILLIAM BIGLER,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The fourth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and forty-four.

DAVID R. PORTER.
