No. 156.

A SUPPLEMENT

To the act incorporating the Delaware mutual safety insurance company.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That to every person, firm or stockholder, who may or shall be entitled to a proportion or share of the surplus or safety fund of said corporation, amounting to five dollars, agreeably to the first and second sections of the act to which this is a further supplement, a certificate shall be issued in conformity with said act, but no certificate shall issue for less than five dollars nor for any fractional part of five dollars, but all such fractional part or sum or sums less than five dollars, shall be passed to the contingent fund of the company, and applied to the expenses and other charges thereof: Provided, That the president and directors, in case of loss, shall have power to declare a pro rata deduction of the amount of the outstanding certificate, and to call in the original certificate, and issue new ones in their stead, less the pro rata reduction. Surplus certificates. Proviso.

Section 2. The said company may, from time to time, receive notes or other securities, real or personal, premiums from persons intending to effect insurances therewith, or from any other person or persons under such regulations or agreements as shall be authorized by the directors, which said notes or other securities may be negociated, transferred or conveyed by the said company for the purpose of paying claims for losses accruing in the course of its business, and on such portion of the said notes or securities as may exceed the amount of premiums paid or agreed to be paid by the parties, from whom the same may have been received, the said company may allow and pay such interest or other compensation not exceeding five per cent. per annum, as may be agreed upon by the directors. Insurance.
