

SECTION 5. Every member shall pay annually to the association a sum of money to be fixed by the board of managers, and no member shall be eligible to any office, or shall be entitled to vote at any election for officers until he shall have paid the sum so fixed for the year within which such election shall be held.

SECTION 6. The treasurer shall hold his office during the pleasure of the board of managers, and the books, papers, moneys and accounts in his possession shall be at all times subject to their inspection and control: he shall give security to the board of managers, to be approved by them for the faithful application of all moneys of the association that may come into his hands.

SECTION 7. At every annual meeting held in pursuance of the second section of this act, the board of managers shall make a full report of the condition and affairs of the association, and of all their proceedings during the terms for which they shall have held office.

SECTION 8. The board of managers at present in office shall be and remain so until their successors shall be duly elected and organized as herein before provided.

SECTION 9. The legislature reserves the right to modify, alter, or annul the privileges hereby granted, in such manner, however, as to do no injustice to the corporators.
