

We do certify that the bill, entitled “An Act to change the name of the National Rangers, and for other purposes,” was presented to the governor on the fifth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, and was not returned within ten days, (Sundays excepted,) after it had been presented to him; wherefore, it has, agreeably to the constitution of this commonwealth, become a law in like manner as if he had signed it.

WILLIAM JACK,

Clerk of the House of Representatives.

JOHN J. M'CAHEN,

Clerk of the Senate.

HARRISBURG, April 18, 1844.

No. 218.

AN ACT

To authorize Samuel Moore, of Rochester township, in the county of Beaver, to erect a wharf on the Ohio river.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That Samuel Moor, of Rochester township, in the county of Beaver, is hereby authorized and empowered to build and erect a wharf opposite to a lot of ground owned and at present occupied by him, on the west bank of the Ohio river, allowing a sufficient space for a road or highway between his dwelling house and the river bank: Provided, That the ascending and descending navigation of said river be not injured or interrupted thereby.

SECTION 2. That the said Samuel Moor, or other persons who may occupy said property, shall have an exclusive right to all advantages arising from the possession of said wharf so erected and maintained: Provided, The wharfage for boats, crafts, and so forth, shall not exceed the standard amount charged at the city of Pittsburg: Provided, further, That the privileges granted by this act shall not interfere with or impair the rights of any person or persons, and the legislature reserve the right to repeal this act, if the same should at any time be deemed expedient.

JAMES ROSS SNOWDEN,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

WILLIAM BIGLER,

Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The nineteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and forty-four.

DAVID R. PORTER.
