

No. 230.

AN ACT

To release the claim of the commonwealth from a certain estate of Elizabeth Roney, deceased, daughter of Amy Roney, deceased, in favor of the heirs and legal representatives of said Amy Roney.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, Amy Roney and Elizabeth Roney, sisters, late of Chester county, and now both deceased, were tenants in common, of about one acre and three-fourths, situate in said county, and said Amy's undivided half, by her devise, became vested in her natural daughter, Elizabeth, who, dying intestate and without children, her undivided half, which otherwise would have descended to the heirs and legal representatives, (being the brothers and sisters, and brothers' and sisters' children of the said Amy,) has become liable to be escheated to the commonwealth; and the other undivided half, has vested in the heirs and legal representatives of said Elizabeth, first above named; therefore,

Claim released.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the claim of the commonwealth is hereby released from all that certain lot of ground containing about one acre and three-fourths, lately owned by Amy Roney and Elizabeth Roney, in the township of New Garden, in the county of Chester; and all the estate, right and title to the same, which was of the said Amy Roney, shall descend to and vest in the heirs and legal representatives of said Amy, to all intents and purposes, as if she had not devised the same to her natural daughter, Elizabeth, since dead, and unmarried and intestate.

JAMES ROSS SNOWDEN,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

WILLIAM BIGLER,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The twenty-second day of April, one thousand eight hundred and forty-four.

DAVID R. PORTER.