

No. 250.

A N A C T

Relating to the Logansville school district in Greene township, Clinton county, and for other purposes.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That hereafter the qualified electors of the Logansville school district, in Greene township, Clinton county, shall meet on the first Monday of June, one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, at the house of George A. Auchenbaugh, in said district, between the hours of twelve and six o'clock, P. M., for the purpose of electing six school directors, and of deciding, by ballot, upon the question of adopting the common school system; the said election to be conducted by G. A. Auchenbaugh, Adam Heller and David Gerhart, who are hereby required to give public notice, by at least six handbills, to be put up in the most public places in said district, for twenty days previous to said election; the said election to be conducted in all other respects agreeably to the provisions of an act, entitled "An Act to consolidate and amend the several acts relative to a general system of education by common schools," passed the thirteenth of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six.

SECTION 2. That every township or borough in the county of Philadelphia, which forms a school section, or part of a section, and elects its school directors by the people, the directors elected in the township or borough shall, from and after the passage of this act, have the supervision of all the schools in the township or borough, and the appointment or removal of all teachers within the township or borough: Provided, That no teacher shall be appointed to any school unless he or she be found qualified, in a public examination, ordered by the said directors, and shall be chosen by a majority of the directors of the township or borough in which the school is located.

SECTION 3. That the fourth section of an act passed 18th of March, 1842, entitled "An Act to authorize the citizens of Little Beaver township, in the county of Beaver, to elect two additional supervisors of the highways, and for other purposes," shall not apply to school directors elected by the people in the county of Philadelphia.

SECTION 4. That the directors of the public schools of the different sections of the city and county of Philadelphia, elected in the year 1844, and those who shall be elected annually hereafter, shall, together with the directors whose term of office has not expired, meet together on the first Monday of June, to elect controllers of public schools for the ensuing school year.

JAMES ROSS SNOWDEN,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

WILLIAM BIGLER,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The twenty-fourth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and forty-four.

DAVID R. PORTER.
