

No. 251.

AN ACT

For the relief of Jacob B. Garber.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the canal commissioners be and they are hereby authorized and required to examine the claim of Jacob B. Garber, for compensation for constructing fences on his land along the railroad, lately constructed by the commonwealth, to avoid the inclined plane at Columbia; and if they shall be satisfied, after proper examination, that the construction of said fences was not taken into consideration by the board of appraisers in making the award of damages already allowed said Garber, they shall allow him such compensation as shall appear to them just and reasonable, and draw their warrant upon the state treasurer, who is hereby authorized to pay the same out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

JAMES ROSS SNOWDEN,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

WILLIAM BIGLER,

Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The twenty-fourth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and forty-four.
