

hundred and forty-four, shall be paid to Jacob Dietz of York county, for the use and benefit of the said Nicholas James, so long as he shall be entitled to receive the same.

JAMES ROSS SNOWDEN,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

WILLIAM BIGLER,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The twenty-seventh day of April, one thousand eight hundred and forty-four.

DAVID R. PORTER.

No. 293.

A SUPPLEMENT

To the act erecting parts of Jefferson, Clearfield and M'Kean counties into a separate county, to be called Elk.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That on all judgments on which writs of fieri facias, venditioni exponas, levari facias, or other process have issued to the sheriff of Clearfield county, previous to the third Monday of October, one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, for the purpose of collecting or making the money due on said judgments, by the sale of the personal or real estate of the defendants, in the county of Elk, the said writs shall not be delayed, discontinued or affected by the act of assembly passed eighteenth April, one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, entitled "An Act erecting parts of Jefferson, Clearfield and M'Kean counties into a separate county, to be called Elk," and that the same acts shall be done on all such judgments and writs, by the sheriff and coroner of Clearfield county, as if the said act had not been passed; and also alias writs may be issued on the said judgments, to the said sheriff and coroner of the county of Clearfield, to be proceeded on in like manner: Provided, That in case of sale of real estate by the sheriff or coroner of the county of Clearfield, which is situated in the county of Elk, the deeds made by the said sheriff or coroner, after they are duly entered of record on the docket of the court of common pleas of Clearfield, shall in like manner be entered of record on the docket of the court of common pleas of the county of Elk, within thirty days.

SECTION 2. That on all mortgages and judgments which are now a lien on real estate in the said county of Elk, on which no writs of fieri facias, venditioni exponas, levari facias, or other process, to levy the money on the said mortgages and judgments, have issued, previous to the third Tuesday of October, one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, all such writs and process hereafter to be issued on said mortgages and judgments, may and shall be directed to the sheriff or coroner of the county of Clearfield, to be proceeded upon in the same manner as if the act to which this is a supplement had not been passed.

Writs.

Proviso.

Mortgages and judgments.

SECTION 3. That on all writs of scire facias, issued to obtain judgments on mortgages, on lands laying in the said county of Elk, or writs as aforesaid, issued to revive judgments generally, which are in lien in like manner on real estate, in the said county of Elk, may and shall be directed to the sheriff or coroner in the county of Clearfield, to be served by the said sheriff or coroner on the defendants, either in the counties of Clearfield or Elk, and also in like manner to be served on terre tenants in the said county of Elk.

SECTION 4. That in all cases where suits have been commenced in the several counties of M'Kean or Jefferson, and the said defendant now resides in the county of Elk, the said party who does not reside in said county of Elk, may remove his said suit into the said county of Elk, by filing his request in the prothonotary's office of M'Kean or Jefferson county, as the case may be.

JAMES ROSS SNOWDEN,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

WILLIAM BIGLER,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The twenty-seventh day of April, one thousand eight hundred and forty-four.

DAVID R. PORTER.

No. 294.

A N A C T.

To provide for the erection of a house for the employment and support of the poor in the county of Mifflin.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That James Brisbin, Samuel Barr and John Fleming, or their successors, commissioners of the county of Mifflin, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners, whose duty it shall be, or a majority of them, on or before the first day of January, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, to determine upon and purchase such real estate as they shall deem necessary for the accommodation of the poor of Mifflin county; and it shall be lawful for said commissioners, or a majority of them, to take conveyance therefor, in the name and for the use of the corporation mentioned in the third section of this act, and they shall certify their proceedings therein, under their hands and seals, to the clerk of the court of quarter sessions of Mifflin county, to be filed in his office, and at the next general election, the qualified electors shall elect three reputable citizens of the said county, to be directors of the poor and of the house of employment, for the county of Mifflin, for the