

Appraisers.

the said property may be received and taken at the said valuation or appraisement; and after being so taken, shall be considered as part of the capital stock of said company: The said persons authorized to examine and appraise said property, in manner as aforesaid, shall be appointed by the said court of common pleas, upon the application of any person interested in said company; and before entering on the duties of their appointment, shall be duly sworn or affirmed, well and truly to perform the trust committed to them, and to value and appraise said real or personal property at its bona fide cash value; and the compensation of said persons appointed to examine and appraise as aforesaid, and the other expenses attending said proceedings, shall be as usual in such cases.

JAMES ROSS SNOWDEN,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

WILLIAM BIGLER,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The twenty-seventh day of April, one thousand eight hundred and forty-four.

DAVID R. PORTER.

No. 312.

AN ACT

Providing for the sale and conveyance of a school house in Morris township, in Huntingdon county.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, James Rea, and Elizabeth his wife, by indenture dated the fourth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, recorded at Huntingdon, in deed book Z, page three hundred and forty, granted and conveyed unto Maxwell Kinkead and John Hyle, trustees, and to their successors in office for ever, a certain lot of ground situate in Morris township, adjoining lands of Solomon Snyder, John Hyle and others, containing sixty-six and one-fourth perches, being part of a tract of land originally surveyed the sixteenth day of April, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and twenty-two, in pursuance of a warrant granted to Samuel Caldwell, dated the nineteenth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, this part was surveyed from the residue of said tract, whereon the petitioners erected a school house for the use of a school forever: And whereas, The said house is now, and has been for several years, unsuited for said use; in consequence of the public school system, Morris district was divided into sub-districts, in which case said lot and house became sub-divided number five, altogether at one end of said number, in consequence of which the school directors of said district have purchased another lot and erected a school house thereon for the use of school forever, which is more central for said sub-division number five; in consequence of this change, the trustees are desirous of disposing of the said lot, conveyed by said deed, and paying over the proceeds to the different stockholders in proportion to each and every one's stock : Therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That John Hyle and Adam Shaffer, trustees of the Farmers' and Mechanics' Trustees to sell school house, in Morris township, Huntingdon county, the title of real estate. which is referred to in the preamble to this act, as may be seen by reference to records at Huntingdon, in deed book Z, page three hundred and forty, be and they are hereby empowered to sell and convey the same, by deed or deeds, in fee simple.

SECTION 2. That the said John Hyle and Adam Shaffer shall make Distribute pro- distribution of the proceeds of the sale of the said school house amongst ceeds. the stockholders, in proportion to their stock respectively: Provided, That the said trustees shall sell the same for the highest price they can get for said school house and lot of ground.

JAMES ROSS SNOWDEN,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

WILLIAM BIGLER,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The twenty-seventh day of April, one thousand eight hundred and forty-four.

DAVID R. PORTER.

No. 313.

AN ACT

Authorizing and requiring John Boucher and Solomon Boucher, executors of Henry Boucher, deceased, to pay over certain money to Magdalena Tedrow.

WHEREAS, Henry Boucher, late of the county of Somerset, deceased, by his last will and testament, among other things, did provide that the share of his estate coming to his daughter, Magdalena Tedrow, should not be paid to her so long as she remained the wife of David Tedrow, but that the same should be paid to her at his death, or in case their marriage were otherwise legally dissolved, and that upon her death it should be paid to her son, Joseph Crichfield, and to her other children, if she should have any others : Preamble.

And whereas, The said David Tedrow has been blind for upwards of three years, and is in destitute circumstances, and the said Magdalena, by reason of her advanced age, is unable to support herself and the said David Tedrow :

And whereas, The shares of the said Magdalena of the said estate, now in the hands of John Boucher and Solomon Boucher, executors of the said last will and testament, amounts to about the sum of three hundred and thirty dollars, besides interest, and the said David Crichfield, the only child of the said Magdalena Tedrow, has expressed by his