A SUPPLEMENT

To an act, entitled “An Act authorizing the laying out of certain state roads, and for other purposes,” approved the fifth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and forty-three.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the commissioners of the several counties through which the state-road from Elderton, in Armstrong county, to Punxatawney, in Jefferson county, by way of Plumville, in Indiana county, was laid out, are hereby authorized and required to settle the account of the commissioners named in the first section of the act to which this is a supplement, and allow them one dollar per day for one axeman, and Thomas Armstrong, the further sum of fifty cents to his per diem allowance, to be paid in the manner prescribed in the said act.

State road in Armstrong, Indiana and Jefferson counties.

SECTION 2. That John F. Saigeer, Henry Landis and Christian Stouffer, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners to review and re-locate that part of the state road from Mifflintown, in Juniata county, by the way of Perre mills and Fort Littleton, to intersect the turnpike road on the summit of Sideling hill, in Bedford county, which lies in Juniata county, in such manner that the vertical departure from a horizontal line shall at no place exceed five degrees, except at the crossing of ravines and streams, when by moderate filling or bridging the declination of said road may be preserved within that limit: Provided, That said commissioners shall be subject to the provisions of the thirty-third, thirty-fourth, thirty-fifth, thirty-sixth, thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth sections of the act to which this is a supplement.
