Preamble.

WHEREAS, By an act of assembly, passed sixth of September, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-three, the subscribers to the Callowhill market were empowered to erect market houses, and let the stalls in the same, until they were repaid the amounts advanced by them, with legal interest, when the said market houses were to become the property of the inhabitants of the Northern Liberties:

And whereas, The income arising from said Callowhill markets has not been sufficient to pay the interest on the cost thereof and keep them in repair, and it being the wish of many of the proprietors or subscribers, that the said market houses should become the property of the commissioners of the incorporated district of the Northern Liberties, upon fair and equitable terms:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from and after the passage of this act, all the right, title and ownership of and to the Callowhill market houses, situate on Callowhill street, between Front and Second streets, in the incorporated district of the Northern Liberties, shall be vested in the inhabitants and commissioners of said district, in their corporate capacity, upon the following terms and conditions, viz: Each of the said parties, the subscribers to the said markets and the commissioners of said district, shall appoint a disinterested person, (to be duly qualified,) and who may appoint a third person, if they cannot agree, to whom shall be submitted all claims or demands that may arise for or against said market houses, and whose decision thereon shall be final and conclusive.

Award of arbitrators.

SECTION 2. That upon the fulfilment of the award of the arbitrators, provided for in the first section of this act, the commissioners of the incorporated district of the Northern Liberties shall have power to tear down, repair or rebuild and reconstruct said market houses on the present site thereof, in any manner they may deem proper: Provided, That no interference is had with the rights and privileges of the adjacent property holders, or with any public streets or highways.
