RESOLUTION

Relative to newspapers.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the members of the senate and house of representatives, the clerks, sergeant-at-arms and doorkeepers, each be furnished during the sessions of the legislature, with two daily newspapers, or as many papers as shall be equivalent thereto in price, and that the expenses be paid by the clerk of the senate and the clerk of the house of representatives for their respective houses, and the auditor general shall draw his warrant upon the state treasurer for the said amount.

JAMES ROSS SNOWDEN,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

WILLIAM BIGLER,

Speaker of the Senate.

We do certify that the bill, entitled "Resolution relative to newspapers," was presented to the governor on the sixth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, and was not returned within ten days, (Sundays excepted,) after it had been presented to him; wherefore, it has, agreeably to the constitution of this commonwealth, become a law in like manner as if he had signed it.

JOHN J. M'CAHEN,

Clerk of the Senate.

WILLIAM JACK,

Clerk of the House of Representatives.

HARRISBURG, February 19, 1844.

RESOLUTION

Relative to the boundary line of Mauch Chunk and Lausanne township, in the county of Carbon.

WHEREAS, The Nesquehoning creek has always hitherto been considered to be the boundary line between Mauch Chunk and Lausanne townships, in the county of Carbon, and the taxes have always been assessed and collected, and the elections held in those townships, in pursuance of this understanding: And whereas, It has lately been ascertained that the boundary between the two townships aforesaid, as recorded at Easton, in Northampton county, was an imaginary line near and parallel to the said creek : Therefore, Preamble.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the Nesquehoning creek shall be the boundary line between the townships of Mauch Chunk and Lausanne, in the county of Carbon, and the taxes shall be assessed, and the elections be held, in conformity thereto.

JAMES ROSS SNOWDEN,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

WILLIAM BIGLER,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The second day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-four.

DAVID R. PORTER.
