

No. 160.

AN ACT

Relative to pawn-brokers in the township of Moyamensing.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That no person or persons shall exercise, or carry on the trade or business of a pawn-broker in the township of Moyamensing, in the county of Philadelphia, without having first obtained a license for that purpose from the board of commissioners of the said township, in the manner now provided for, or which may at any time hereafter be provided for, by the laws and ordinances of said township.

License.

SECTION 2. Each and every person or persons, who shall be authorized by license as aforesaid, shall, at the time of receiving such license, enter with two sufficient sureties into a joint and several bond, in the penal sum of five hundred dollars, conditioned for the faithful observance of such laws and ordinances, as the board of commissioners of the said township have enacted, or may hereafter enact, for the purpose of regulating the business of pawn-broking within the said township.

Bond.

SECTION 3. Any person who shall be engaged in, or shall carry on the business of a pawn-broker in the said township, without having first obtained a license as aforesaid, or who shall not comply with the ordinances aforesaid, shall be subject to such fines and penalties as the said board of commissioners may have imposed, or shall hereafter impose, which said fines and penalties shall be levied and collected upon summons issued by any alderman or justice of the peace in the said county, whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

Penalty.

FINDLEY PATTERSON,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

WILLIAM P. WILCOX,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The twenty-seventh day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-five.

FRS. R. SHUNK.
