Penalty for refusal to accept office.

SECTION 4. That if any person duly elected chief burgess, member of the town council or high constable, as aforesaid, and having received due notice thereof, as directed by this act, shall refuse or neglect to take upon himself the execution of the said office to which he shall have been elected, or having taken upon himself the duties of the said office, shall neglect to discharge the same according to law, every person so refusing or neglecting, shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay the sum of ten dollars, which fine, and all other fines, penalties, and forfeitures incurred and made payable in pursuance of this act, or any by-law or ordinance of the town council, shall be for the use of the said corporation, and shall be recovered by suit brought before the chief burgess, (to whom is hereby given the same power and authority in suits brought before him,) to recover the same, as justices of the peace within the commonwealth by law have, where the demand does not exceed one hundred dollars, in the form and manner and with the same costs of suits, that debts of like amount are by law recoverable, and the same when recovered, shall be paid to the treasurer of the borough; and it shall be the duty of the officers of the borough, on receiving any money belonging to the corporation, to pay the same to the treasurer forthwith: Provided, That no person elected as aforesaid, shall be liable to a fine for refusing or neglecting to serve more than once in five years.

SECTION 5. That the chief burgess, members of the town council and high constable, and all the other officers of the borough, appointed by the town council in pursuance of the further provisions of this act, before entering upon the duties of their respective offices, shall take and subscribe an oath or affirmation before the chief burgess, or any justice of the peace of said county, "to support the constitution of the United States, and of the state of Pennsylvania, and to perform the duties of their respective offices with fidelity," and the certificates of such oath or affirmation shall be filed among the records of said corporation. Oath.

SECTION 6. That the town council shall meet on the first Saturday next after their election, in each year, at the public school house in said town, or such other place as they may determine upon, and choose one of their number president, who shall preside at their meetings; and in the event of the absence, death, resignation, removal, or inability to act, the chief burgess shall possess, all and singular, the rights, privileges, powers and authorities of the said chief burgess given him in this act or elsewhere; and further, to choose one of their number secretary of the town council, (whose salary shall be fixed by the said town council,) whose duty it shall be to take charge of all the papers, records and common seal of said corporation, and be answerable therefor, and also for the faithful discharge of the duties enjoined upon him by this act, or by the by-laws and ordinances of the town council; and shall keep a fair and accurate record of all the proceedings, minutes and resolutions, by-laws and ordinances of the said town council, open at all reasonable times for the inspection of every qualified voter of said borough; and the attestation of the said secretary, with the seal of the corporation, shall be good evidence of the act or thing so certified; and it shall be the duty of the said town council, (four of whom shall be a quorum,) to hold quarterly meetings on the third Saturdays in September, December and March, in each year, and such other meetings as occasion may require; at which meetings they may make, enact, alter, revise, repeal and amend all such by-laws, rules, regulations and ordinances, as shall be determined by a majority of them, necessary to promote the peace, good order, benefit and advantage of the said borough, and particularly providing for the regulation, improving, repairing and keeping in order the streets, lanes, alleys and highways. They shall have power to assess and apportion such taxes as shall be determined by a majority of them, necessary for carrying the said rules, by-laws and ordinances, from time to time, into complete effect; and also to appoint a treasurer, street supervisor and collector, annually, and such other officers as may be deemed necessary from time to time; and the same officers, from time to time, to remove for misdemeanors in office: Provided, That no by-laws, rules or ordinances of said corporation, shall be repugnant to the constitution and laws of this commonwealth; and that no person shall be punished for the breach of any by-law or ordinance of the said corporation, until ten days shall have expired after the promulgation thereof, by at least three advertisements, set up in the most public places in the said borough: And provided also, That in assessing such tax, due regard shall be had to the valuation of taxable property taken for the purpose of raising the county rates and levies, so that the said tax shall not in any one year exceed one-third cent on the dollar of such Annual meetings of council.

SECTION 10. That the town council shall from time to time fix the compensation, and at their discretion declare the duties of all the officers elected, appointed or to be appointed under the several provisions of this act, which compensation shall be paid out of the borough treasury, by orders drawn by them, signed by the president and countersigned by the secretary; and the same shall not be increased or diminished during the time for which said officers were appointed respectively: Provided, That if any person appointed by the town council as aforesaid, shall neglect or refuse to take upon himself the duties of the office to which he has been appointed, he shall for the same forfeit and pay, for the use of the corporation, the sum of ten dollars, unless he can render to the said council satisfactory reason why he should be exonerated from said service: Provided also, That no person, as aforesaid, shall be liable to a fine for refusing or neglecting to serve more than once in five years.

SECTION 11. That if any person or persons shall think him, her or Grievances. themselves aggrieved by anything done by the chief burgess in his judicial capacity, or anything done in pursuance of this act, except in what relates to the appointments made by the town council, he, she or they may appeal to the next court of common pleas to be held for the county of Dauphin, upon giving security, according to law, in appeals from judgments, appeals from justices of the peace, to prosecute his, her or their appeal with effect: Provided also, That such appeals shall be Proviso. determined in the same manner, and the proceedings therein shall be the same, as in appeals from justices of the peace; and that such appeal shall be allowed in cases where the judgment is given for a less sum than five dollars thirty-four cents, as well as where it exceeds that sum.

SECTION 12. That no officer of said borough shall have any voice in Councils. the legislature for said borough; but the same is hereby vested in the members of the town council exclusively, who, as members, shall receive no compensation for their services.

SECTION 13. That all property, offices, professions, and persons Taxation. made taxable by the laws of this commonwealth for county rates and levies, shall be taxable after the same manner by the said borough; and all tax, rates and levies, assessed, rated, and levied therein, shall be recovered in the same manner as the county rates and levies of the county of Dauphin are by law recoverable.

SECTION 14. That the said council shall have full power to pave, Improvements. or otherwise improve all or any or every of the footways and gutters within the borough, at the expense thereof: Provided, That every owner of property or ground shall have the right to pave the footway on the front of their own lots at their own expense, according to the grade fixed by the commissioners and approved by the town council: Provided, They have it completed within sixty days after due notice in writing given for that purpose by the council or other agent: And provided, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to give power to the council to compel any person to pave at his own expense.

SECTION 15. That the high constable shall give bond and security to High constable, the said corporation in such sum as the said council shall approve, con- bond. ditioned for the performance of all the duties enjoined upon him by this act, and by the ordinances and by-laws of the council; and that from and after the passage of this act, the citizens of the borough of Dauphin Road tax. shall be exempted from paying road tax to the township of Middle Paxton.

SECTION 16. That the officers of the said borough election are hereby Pay of election entitled to receive the sum of fifty cents each, which shall be paid them officers. by the treasurer upon an order signed by the president and countersigned by the secretary of the town council; and any qualified elector in said borough may be an officer at said election, any existing law of this commonwealth to the contrary notwithstanding; and that the writs for the recovery of fines and for forfeitures, to be issued by the chief burgess or president of council under the aforesaid contingency, and shall be in the form of writs of summonses, capias, execution, and such other necessary writs as are issued by justices of the peace in pursuance of the laws of this commonwealth.
