A FURTHER SUPPLEMENT

To an act concerning divorces.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That Decree of court of common pleas. upon a decree a mensa et thoro, and the allowance of alimony, shall have been made by any of the courts of common pleas of the respective counties of this commonwealth, or hereafter may be made, it shall be the duty of the prothonotary of said court to enter the said decree on the judgment docket of said court, which said decree when so entered, is hereby declared to be and shall remain a lien on the real estate of such respondent, until the same is satisfied for the full amount that may be due up to the period of such satisfaction; and after such lien shall be so entered, it shall be the duty of the prothonotary of said court, upon affidavit by the libellant that any payment under said decree, as the same has been made due and payable by the court, is due and unpaid, to issue execution on the written order of the libellant, or her attorney, setting forth the amount so due and unpaid, which shall be directed to and served by the sheriff in like manner as executions upon judgment; and if the court should be of opinion that the said lien is not sufficient for the full or permanent security for payment of said decree, it shall have power and authority, on satisfactory proof being made that the respondent is possessed of sufficient estate, to order a decree and require that security, such as shall be determined and approved by said court, Duty of prothonotary. Security.

shall be given for the due payment of the said alimony according to the terms of said decree; the said security to be either by a bond, with sufficient sureties, or mortgage on real estate, taken in the name of the commonwealth, to the use of the party entitled to said alimony, or by the deposit of money, to be invested as the court may deem proper, as may seem to the court sufficient to secure the payment of said alimony, as the same may fall due.

Attachment.

SECTION 2. The said courts may enforce their decrees by attachment, on the return of which they may make such order, either to imprison or discharge the defendant, as the facts of the case may justify.
