A SUPPLEMENT

To an act, entitled "An Act to establish a seminary by the name of Haverford school association."

WHEREAS, Doubts have arisen whether the act, entitled "An Act to establish a seminary by the name of Haverford school association," does not make it unlawful for the members of the said incorporated association, to alter or repeal any of the rules, orders, regulations and constitution of the said association, as they existed at and immediately before the date of the said act; for remedy whereof, Preamble.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That nothing in the said act shall be deemed to prohibit the members of the said association at any meeting, either annual or special, from altering, amending or repealing any of the rules, orders, regulations and constitution of the said association, as they existed at and immediately before the date of the said act; and it shall be lawful for the said members, or Power to enact by-laws, rules, &c.
