No. 34.

AN ACT

To authorize George Summers, guardian of John Greenawalt, Elizabeth Greenawalt, Susan Greenawalt and Jacob Greenawalt, to expend a certain sum of money in erecting buildings on a farm belonging to his wards.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, John Greenawalt, Elizabeth Greenawalt, Susan Greenawalt and Jacob Greenawalt, minor children of Jacob Greenawalt, late of the county of Franklin, deceased, of whom George Summers is guardian, are seized of a tract of land situate in Peters township, in the said county, containing about two hundred and sixteen acres, with allowance, upon which there is no barn or stable, and but an indifferent house; and the said George Summers, as guardian as aforesaid, has in his hands the sum of eight hundred and twenty-nine dollars, which he is desirous of expending, in erecting suitable buildings on said tract of land:

And whereas, The said George Summers presented his petition to the orphans' court of said county, praying the said court to make a decree, authorizing him so to expend said sum of money, which the said court refused to do for want of jurisdiction; therefore,

Power to erect buildings.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the said George Summers be and he is hereby authorized to expend the said sum of eight hundred and twenty-nine dollars in erecting suitable buildings on the said tract of land; and if the said sum shall not be sufficient to complete said buildings, then he is hereby fully authorized to apply so much of the rents, issues and profits of said tract of land, as may be necessary to complete the same; and the judges of the orphans' court of said county of Franklin, upon the production of sufficient vouchers by the said George Summers, of the expenditure of the said sum of money, or of the rents issues and profits of said tract of land, if the same shall become necessary, shall allow him credit in the settlement of his account as guardian as aforesaid, for the same, if they shall be satisfied the said expenditure was in accordance with the provisions of this act.

FINDLEY PATTERSON,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
DANIEL L. SHERWOOD,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The twelfth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and forty-six.
