AN ACT

For the better regulation of the common school system, so far as relates to Salisbury township school district, in the county of Lancaster.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That in addition to the tax provided for by the act, entitled "An Act to consolidate and amend the several acts relative to a general system of education by common schools," passed the thirteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, and the supplements thereto, the school directors of Salisbury township school district, in the county of Lancaster, are hereby authorized to assess upon each scholar that shall attend any of the public schools in said district, any sum not exceeding one dollar per quarter, at the discretion of said directors, to be paid by the parent, guardian, master, or other person having charge of such scholars, in proportion to their ability to pay, in such a manner as is hereafter provided. Directors to assess an additional tax.

SECTION 2. It shall be lawful for said directors to demand and receive from any parent, guardian, master, or other person having charge of any children in said district, that may send to any of the said schools, the amount of tax assessed upon each scholar, at the commencement of each quarter; and if any parent, guardian, master, or other person having charge of any such children, shall neglect or refuse to pay said tax on or before the expiration of the quarter, the president of the board of directors shall issue his warrant to the district collector, authorizing him to collect the same; and the said collector shall have like power to enforce the payment of the said tax, as is given him by the seventh section of the act of the thirteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, to collect the tax assessed upon property for school purposes, and shall receive the like compensation for his services. Demand the tax at the beginning of each quarter.
Collector to enforce payment.
Compensation.

SECTION 3. The said directors shall have full power to exonerate any parent, guardian, master, or other person having charge of any children, from the payment of said tax, if they shall be satisfied of their inability to pay the same, but shall not exclude their children from said school for the non-payment of said tax. Exoneration.

SECTION 4. That the accounts of the treasurer of said school shall, on or before the third Friday of April of each and every year, oftener, if necessary, be audited and adjusted by the board of school directors of said district. Settlement of accounts.

SECTION 5. That it shall be lawful for the school directors of said Salisbury township school district, if they shall deem expedient, to levy and collect the tax authorized by the first section of this act, immediately upon the passage hereof. Directors may levy and collect tax immediately.

SECTION 6. All laws relative to the common school system, which are inconsistent with the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed, so Repeal.

far as they relate to the Salisbury township school district, in the county of Lancaster.

FINDLEY PATTERSON,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

No. 128.

A N A C T

To confirm the title to certain real estate, late of Jonathan Butler, deceased.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, The administrators of Jonathan Butler, late of Upper Dublin township, Montgomery county, deceased, under an order of the orphans' court of said county, sold the real estate of said decedent to Thomas Tyson, for William Carr, but made return to said court that the said real estate was sold to Thomas Tyson, which sale was confirmed by said court:

And whereas, The said William Carr paid the purchase money for said real estate to the said administrators, who accounted for the same in the settlement of the estate of the said decedent, and executed a deed of conveyance for the real estate so sold as aforesaid, in fee, to the said William Carr, who went into possession thereof, and afterwards sold and conveyed the same in fee to Jesse Tomlinson, who went into possession thereof, and afterwards sold and conveyed the same in fee to William Bradfield, who went into possession thereof, and who has continued in possession to the present time, and is the bona fide owner thereof: Therefore, in order to remove the defect in the title to said premises, in consequence of the mistake and defect in the return of said administrators to said order, and the deed executed by them to said William Carr—

Title confirmed.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the deed of conveyance, executed by the administrators of Jonathan Butler, late of Upper Dublin township, Montgomery county, deceased, to William Carr, in fee, dated the first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four, for a messuage and tract of land, situate in said township, of which said Jonathan Butler died seized, described in said deed, containing fifty-five acres, more or less, which was sold by said administrators, under an order of the orphans' court of said county, in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, and returned as sold to Thomas Tyson, shall be held as good and valid in law, to
