AN ACT

For the relief of Eve Oury, for services rendered during the Revolutionary war.

WHEREAS, It appears from credible testimony, that Eve Oury, of Westmoreland county, during a tremendous attack upon Hannastown Fort, in said county, made by a large party of Indians and others, during the summer of one thousand seven hundred and seventy-eight, signalized herself by the most heroic bravery, risking her life in the defence of the garrison; inspiring, by her fortitude and determination, her associates with courage, and performing the most active and efficient service in driving away the assailing party, by which many were saved from a horrid butchery by the merciless and savage foe :

And whereas, It is entirely proper that such noble behaviour in a female, should be gratefully remembered and rewarded :

And whereas, The said Eve Oury is now old, infirm, and in necessitous circumstances, and has never received any compensation from the legislature of this state ; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the state treasurer be and he is hereby authorized and directed to pay to Eve Oury, of Westmoreland county, or to her order, an annuity of forty dollars during life, payable half-yearly, to commence on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and forty-six ; and also to her order, the sum of forty dollars, as a gratuity, for her services in the Revolutionary war.

FINDLEY PATTERSON,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

DANIEL L. SHERWOOD,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and forty-six.
