No. 179.

AN ACT

Relative to the taking of testimony on commissions.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That no depositions which have been taken in pursuance of a rule granted by a single judge in vacation, to take depositions, or of a commission to take testimony on short notice, (in the case of the Bank of Missouri against James Alexander) in any cause now pending in the court of common pleas of Mifflin county, shall be rejected on account of the rule being so granted as aforesaid, or of the commission having been executed on short notice; but such depositions or testimony so taken as aforesaid, shall be received and read on the trial of said cause, as if the Testimony in the case of Missouri Bank vs. James Alexander, to be read.
