

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal of office, at Trenton, in said state, this fifteenth day of March, A. D., eighteen hundred and forty-five.

CHARLES G. M'CHESNEY,
Secretary of State.

State of New Jersey:

[L. s.] I, Charles C. Stratton, governor of the state of New Jersey, do hereby certify that Charles G. M'Chesney, esquire, who hath signed the preceding certificate, and whose official seal is thereto annexed, is secretary of state of the state of New Jersey, duly appointed, commissioned and sworn, and that full faith and credit are to be given to his official attestations; that the said signature is in the proper handwriting of the said Charles G. M'Chesney, and the seal his seal of office, and that the said certificate is in due form of law.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the state of New Jersey, to be hereunto affixed, at the city of Trenton, in said state, this fifteenth day of March, in the year of our Lord, eighteen hundred and forty-five, and of the independence of the United States, the sixty-ninth.

By the governor.

CHARLES C. STRATTON.

CHARLES G. M'CHESNEY, Secretary of State.

FINDLEY PATTERSON,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

DANIEL L. SHERWOOD,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The tenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and forty-six.

A N A C T

To prevent the destruction of game in the county of Perry.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from and after the passage of this act, it shall not be lawful for any person in the county of Perry, to shoot or otherwise kill any wild turkey, pheasant, partridge or rabbit, between the first days of March and August, nor any woodcock between the first days of January and July, in any year hereafter, under a penalty of five dollars for each and every offence.

SECTION 2. Any person offending against any of the provisions of this act, shall forfeit and pay the sum or fine attached to the same, with all costs and charges, which may be recovered before any justice of the peace for the county aforesaid, as debts of a similar amount are by law recoverable; the one-half of the fine for the use of the informer, who is made a competent witness, and the other half to the supervisors, for the benefit of the public highways, in the township in which the offence may be committed.

FINDLEY PATTERSON,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

AN ACT

Authorizing the laying out of a state road from the borough of Orwigsburg, Schuylkill county, to intersect a public road leading from Easton to Mauch Chunk, and for other purposes.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That Jacob Hammer, of Schuylkill county, Charles Dinkey, of Carbon county, and William Bock, of Lehigh county, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners, to view and lay out a state road from the court house, in the borough of Orwigsburg, by way of M'Keansburg, Focht's forge, Samuel K. Kepner, David Sechler's taverns, D. Kisler's mill, in Schuylkill county, and Dinkey's tavern, to intersect the public road leading from Easton to Mauch Chunk, at or near the house of John Dieter Bowman, in the county of Carbon.

Commissioners.

Location.

Duty of commissioners.

SECTION 2. It shall be the duty of the said board of commissioners, or a majority of them, after taking and subscribing an oath or affirmation before a justice of the peace, or some other officer authorized to administer oaths, to perform the duties enjoined on them by this act, with fidelity and impartiality, to carefully view the grounds over which said road may pass, and lay out the same of the width of thirty-three feet, and as near a straight line between the aforesaid points as the nature of the ground will permit, so that the vertical departure from a horizontal line shall at no point exceed five degrees, except at crossing ravines and streams, when by a moderate excavation, filling or bridging, the declination of said road may be preserved within that limit.

Mark route.

SECTION 3. That it shall be the duty of the said commissioners plainly and distinctly to mark the ground, on the route agreed upon for said road, in such manner as to enable the supervisors readily to find the same, and for the purpose of faithfully performing the duties of this act, the said commissioners are hereby authorized to employ one surveyor,
