AN ACT

To authorize the state treasurer to refund certain money overpaid as collateral inheritance tax, by Philip Lauer.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, It is represented that Philip Lauer, late administrator with the will annexed, of Henry Masser, late of Moreland township, Montgomery county, deceased, on the sixth day of January, eighteen hundred and forty-three, paid to the register of wills of said county, the sum of forty-three dollars and ninety-four cents, as collateral inheritance tax, on the estate of said decedent, which, as appears by the final settlement of said administrator, was eighteen dollars and forty-three cents more than was due on said estate, or than he had credit for in such settlement: And whereas, The said Philip Lauer was removed from his trust by the orphans' court of said county, and George H. Pawling was appointed in his place, and the balance of said estate, in the hands of said Philip Lauer, has not yet been paid to his said successor; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the state treasurer be and he is hereby authorized to pay, out of any moneys in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, to George H. Pawling, who was appointed by the orphans' court of Montgomery, in the place of Philip Lauer, late administrator with the will annexed, of Henry Masser, late of Moreland township, in said county, deceased, the sum of eighteen dollars and forty-three cents, which was paid by the said Philip Lauer, administrator aforesaid, to the register of wills of said county, as collateral inheritance tax, on the estate of said decedent, over and above the amount that was due therefor from said estate, as appears by the settlement thereof; which sum shall be received by the said George H. Pawling, on account of the balance of said estate, due to him from the said Philip Lauer, and now remaining unpaid and credited to said Philip Lauer accordingly.

FINDLEY PATTERSON,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

DANIEL L. SHERWOOD,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The fourteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and forty-six.
