AN ACT

In relation to the duties of county auditors, in the county of Potter, and for other purposes.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the county auditors of the county of Potter, are hereby authorized and required, as soon after the passage of this act as practicable, to meet for the purpose of settling the accounts of the county treasurer, with the several townships in said county; and after having so met, they shall proceed with as little delay as possible, to settle the accounts of the respective treasurers, with said townships, for the years one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, forty-two, forty-three, forty-four, forty-five and forty-six, and make report to the court of common pleas, of any balances due from any of the treasurers aforesaid, to the said several townships, or any of them, which report shall be entered of record, and have the same effect and validity as a judgment in favor of said township, against said treasurer: Provided, That it shall be competent for the treasurer, or the township, to appeal from said report, in the same manner as appeals are allowed from the reports of county auditors, in relation to county funds.

SECTION 2. That hereafter it shall be the duty of the aforesaid county auditors, annually, at the time of settling the accounts of the treasurer of said county, with the commonwealth, and with the county, to settle the accounts of said treasurer, with the townships in said county; and all proceedings thereon shall be as is provided for in the first section of this act.
