RESOLUTION

Relative to the fees on commissions to certain offices in Delaware county.

WHEREAS, By the act of sixth April, one thousand eight hundred and thirty, the secretary of the commonwealth is required to receive for the use of the commonwealth, for each commission for prothonotary, clerk of oyer and terminer, of quarter sessions, of orphans' court, register of wills, and recorder of deeds, the sum of ten dollars: And whereas, In the county of Delaware those offices are held by one person: And whereas, Joseph Weaver, junior, was on the twenty-fourth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, appointed by the governor to said offices, to fill a vacancy occasioned by death, and held said offices up to the first day of December succeeding, a period of two months and seven days: And whereas, The payment of the sum of sixty dollars for commissions, would swallow up the greater portion of the fees received during that time; therefore,

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the said Joseph Weaver, junior, be and he is hereby exonerated from the payment of any fees upon said commissions.

FINDLEY PATTERSON,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

WM. S. ROSS,

Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The twenty-second day of April, one thousand eight hundred and forty-six.

RESOLUTIONS

Relative to the tariff.

WHEREAS, The tariff of one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, produces no more than sufficient revenue to defray the necessary expenses of the general government, and affords only an adequate incidental protection to American industry and American manufactures, against foreign competition and foreign policy, and a consequent encouragement to commercial enterprise, to agricultural pursuits, and to the development of our own internal resources: And whereas, It is believed

Tariff.
