

LAWS OF PENNSYLVANIA,

manner as shall be deemed most advantageous, and not contrary to law.

JAMES COOPER,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

CH. GIBBONS,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The thirteenth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven.

FRS. R. SHUNK.

No. 61.

AN ACT

For the reimbursement of money expended by certain citizens in the repair of the aqueduct over the Allegheny river, at the city of Pittsburg.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That before the aqueduct over the Allegheny river, opposite the city of Pittsburg, shall revert to the commonwealth, the mayor, aldermen and citizens of Pittsburg shall, after being reimbursed for rebuilding and repairing the same, as provided for in the act, entitled “An Act authorizing the mayor, aldermen and citizens of Pittsburg to rebuild or repair the aqueduct over the Allegheny river, at said city,” and the supplement thereto, approved one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, retain possession of the same, and continue to collect the tolls provided for in said act, until the sum of two thousand two hundred and fifty dollars, with interest thereon from this date, which interest shall be paid annually by the treasurer of said city, out of the tolls received, shall have been collected; and they shall pay the said sum, when collected, into the state treasury, to be drawn out upon the warrant of the auditor general, in favor of such persons as he shall be satisfied expended their money in the repair of the said aqueduct, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, while the same was in the possession of the commonwealth.

JAMES COOPER,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

CH. GIBBONS,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The thirteenth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and forty seven.

FRS. R. SHUNK.