

ward; and in the choice of a return judge for the said city, the said additional judge shall not vote, but the return judge shall be elected as heretofore provided for by law.

Electors, where to vote.

SECTION 6. That the electors residing within East North Mulberry, West North Mulberry, East Middle, West Middle, East Lower Delaware, West Lower Delaware, East Upper Delaware and West Upper Delaware, shall vote at windows, to be provided on the north side of the state house; and the electors of New Market, Spruce, Lombard, Cedar, Dock, West Locust, East Locust and Pine wards, shall vote at windows, to be provided on the south side of the state house; and the electors of Chesnut, East South Mulberry, West South Mulberry, East North, West North and Walnut wards, shall vote at windows, to be provided on the east and south sides of the south room of the county court house; and the electors of West South, East South and High Street wards, shall vote at windows, to be provided on the north and east sides of the north room of the county court house, at the corner of Sixth and Chesnut streets, in the city of Philadelphia.

Not to interfere with present wards.

SECTION 7. That nothing in this act contained shall be construed to affect or interfere with the present division of the wards of the city of Philadelphia, or the officers thereof, except as hereinbefore specified.

Compensation of election officers.

SECTION 8. That the additional inspectors, judges and clerks herein appointed, shall be entitled to the same compensation, as is now by law allowed.

JAMES COOPER,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

CH. GIBBONS,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The sixth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven.

FRS. R. SHUNK

No. 175.

A SUPPLEMENT

To an act to incorporate the Mount Union cemetery, passed April fourteenth, one thousand eight hundred and forty-six.

Trustees incorporated.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That Robert Fairman, A. Davidson, William Carson, James H. Smith and H. Morrison, trustees of the First Associate Reformed church of the city of Allegheny, and their successors, duly elected trustees of said church, be and are hereby created a body politic, in law, under the name and title of "The Mount Union cemetery;" and by that name shall have perpetual succession, and shall be able and capable to sue and be sued, implead and be impleaded, in all courts of law and equity, and to do all such other things as are incident to a corporation.

Name.
Privileges.

SECTION 2. That the said trustees shall have power to fill all vacancies which may occur among them, in such manner and at such times as the charter of such church at present provides; and they shall have full power to ordain, establish and put in execution all such by-laws, rules and regulations as may be necessary for the proper government of this corporation.

SECTION 3. That the said trustees shall have power to hold so much personal property as may be necessary for the purposes of their incorporation, together with the real estate now in their possession, not exceeding twelve acres, and to divide and arrange it into suitable plots and burial lots, and to do all other things necessary and proper to be done to adapt the said ground to the purpose of a cemetery; and to sell and dispose of such plots and burial lots, for the purpose of sepulture, to individuals, societies and congregations, upon such rules and conditions as may be necessary: Provided, That the lots sold shall not be used for any other purpose.

Vacancies, how supplied.

By-laws.

Hold real and personal estate.

Divide into lots.

Sell lots.

Proviso.

SECTION 4. That no street, road, railroad or canal shall ever be laid out through the lands so occupied as a cemetery, except under the authority of said trustees; and the said property, real and personal, so used, aforesaid, shall be exempt from taxation for county and municipal purposes, and from levy and sale on attachment and execution for debt, or otherwise.

No street, &c., to be laid out through said land. Exempt from taxation, levy or sale.

JAMES COOPER,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

CH. GIBBONS,

Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The sixth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven.

FRS. R. SHUNK.

No. 176.

AN ACT

Relative to trustees under the will of Joseph Parker Norris, deceased.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the executors of the last will of Joseph Parker Norris, deceased, to resign and renounce their trust, as trustees under said last will, of one undivided seventh part of the estate called Sepviva, without in any way affecting or destroying their office or trust as executors generally, or any other trust vested in them by the said will; and upon such resignation or renunciation of said executors, it shall and may be lawful for the orphans' court for the city and county of Philadelphia, upon application of any one of the cestui que trust of said one undivided seventh part, to appoint a trustee or trustees in the place or stead of the said executors; and also a successor or successors Executors may renounce trust, destroying the office as executors.