

ington township," or "against Washington township." The officers of said election shall make return of the votes polled for and against the new township of Washington, to the next court of quarter sessions of said county; which return shall be filed among the papers of said court. If a majority of the votes polled shall be in favor of the new township of Washington, then the said new township shall remain as at present laid off; but if the majority of the votes polled, shall be against the new township of Washington, then there shall be no such new township; and the old township of Bethel shall remain as if the said new township of Washington had never been erected out of the same.
