No. 228.

AN ACT

Relative to the estate of Martin Walborn, late of Lebanon county, deceased, and authorizing Henry Rohrer to pay over certain trust funds.

WHEREAS, Martin Walborn, late of Lebanon county, deceased, by his last will and testament, bearing date the seventh of December, eighteen hundred and thirty-two, and recorded in the registers' office of said county, in will book "B" page two hundred and eight, made a bequest of real estate, in the following words: "my wife Margaretta shall have, enjoy and possess, and take the benefits therefrom during her life, of my tract of land, with the appurtenances, situate in the township of Bethel aforesaid, adjoining lands of Samuel Fidler, John Bowman, Martin Daub and William Rauch, containing twenty-four acres, be the same more or less; item, it is my will, and do order, that after her death, or the death of my wife Margaretta, my hereinafter named executor shall make public vendue and sell my personal property, whatever remains, as also my tract of land before mentioned, and pay her debts and funeral expenses therefrom, as soon as conveniently, and distribute the balance amongst my nine children, as follows: to pay unto each of my five children of my first wife, deceased, namely, my son Henry Walborn, and my daughter Elizabeth, the wife of John Kelchner, Catharine, the wife of Conrad Fogleman, Magdalena, the wife of John Christman, and Barbara, the wife of John Homan, the sum of one dollar in full for their shares, out of my whole estate, because they have received their whole heirdom of their mother from their grandfather; and the remaining balance shall be equally divided amongst my remaining four children of my second wife, namely, my sons Jacob Walborn and Thomas Walborn, and my daughters Loisey and Ger-trand, share and share alike; and I do authorize and empower my hereinafter named executor, to give and execute a deed unto the purchaser of my tract of land, as good and perfect as I might or could do:"

And whereas, The said tract of land had become dilapidated, and it was deemed for the best interests of all the parties concerned, that the same should be sold ; the said Margaretta, wife of said testator, and Jacob Walborn, Thomas Walborn, Christian Eisenbauer and his wife, the aforesaid Gertrand, and Jacob Wolf and his wife, the aforesaid Loisey, have entered into articles of agreement with Frederick Blecker, for the sale of the said tract of land ; therefore SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same. That any title or deed of conveyance, executed by the said Margaretta Walborn, Thomas Walborn, Jacob Walborn, Christian Eisenbauer and his wife Gertrand, and Jacob Wolf and his wife Loisey, wife and children of the said Martin Walborn, deceased, to the said Frederick Blecker, for the aforesaid tract of land, is hereby legalized and made good and valid, to all intents and purposes, as if the said Margaretta Walborn had died, and the said deed of conveyance had been made by the executor of the said Martin Walborn, deceased : Provided however, That this act shall not be so construed as to impair or interfere with the legacies or rights of the other children of the said Martin Walborn, deceased, to wit : the aforesaid Henry Walborn, Elizabeth, the wife of John Kelchner, Catharine, the wife of Conrad Fogleman, Barbara, the wife of John Homan, and Magdalena, the wife of John Christman, but that the legacy to which each of them may be entitled to under the provisions of the said Martin's will, shall remain a lien on said tract of land, as if this act had never passed.

Henry Rohrer, authorized to pay
over certain trust moneys to Christian Diffenbach.

SECTION 2. And it is hereby enacted, That Henry Rohrer, of Lancaster county, trustee and successor of John Döner, be and he hereby is authorized to pay unto Christian Diffenbach, of the county aforesaid, the sum of one thousand dollars, with whatever interest is now due, or whatever funds he now holds, as trustee aforesaid, and that upon so doing he be discharged from all further liability on account of said trust.

JAMES COOPER,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

CH. GIBBONS,
Speaker of the Senate.
