

Accounts of commissioners, how settled. SECTION 5. That the accounts of said commissioners, for their own pay and that of a surveyor, chain carrier, axeman, shall be made out and returned to the commissioners of such counties in which said road may be located, in proportion to the time spent in the respective counties in the location of said road, and that they be paid out of the treasury of the respective counties, on warrants drawn in the usual manner.

Vacancies, how supplied. SECTION 6. That the said commissioners shall meet on or before the first day of September, Anno Domini eighteen hundred and forty-seven, and complete the view of said road; and if any vacancy shall occur, by resignation or otherwise, the court of quarter sessions of the county where such vacancy shall exist, shall appoint a suitable person, who shall perform said duty.

Farther duties. SECTION 7. That it shall be the duty of said commissioners to endeavor to procure from the persons through whose land such location may be made, releases for all claims of damages that might arise from opening the same; and in every case where said commissioners shall fail to procure such releases, and it shall appear to them that any damages will be sustained, it shall be their duty to assess the damages, and make report thereof, signed by a majority of them, and return the same, together with all releases obtained, to the court of quarter sessions of the county in which such damages may accrue.

JAMES COOPER,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
